Pocket Tire Gauge Saves Attendant In Razor Attack

An auto tire gauge in his pocket last night saved a Greenbrae service station attendant from death or serious injury from a straight-edge razor swung by a burglar, Police Chief Howard Clark of Larkspur reported today.

The burglar, fleeing the Greenbrae car wash at 501 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, cut five-inch slashes through shirt and jacket of Donald John Arceo, night attendant at the Union Oil Service Station adjoining the car wash.

Arceo noticed the man leaving the office of the car wash about 9 p.m. He grabbed him, he told Patrolman George M. Newman. As he did so, the man popped out the razor, slashed with it, dropped something and then ran to a parked 1959 white four-door sedan in which was a second man.

The car sped east on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Arceo then noticed what the burglar had dropped: A metal money tray, a checkbook containing 51 blanks, an electric razor, and $7.90 in coins.

As he noted the slashes in his shirt and jacket Arceo found that a tire gauge in his shirt pocket had deflected the blow, immediately in front of his heart, reported Newman.

George G. Sosic, owner of the car wash, reported nothing missing from the office except the items dropped.

Entry had been made by breaking a six-by-six-foot plate glass window.

Walkin' The Dog—50 Miles

Marin Club Takes Up Challenge

Walking the dog around the block is a necessary chore. Walking the dog 50 miles is the latest development in the Marin County hiking craze, and it will take place Friday.

Fifteen dogs and their masters, will leave the Corte Madera Shopping Center at 5 a.m. on a hike that will end in Petaluma.

For the German shepherds, it is the K-9 Corps' answer to the Marine Corps challenge that was first issued in 1908 by former President Theodore Roosevelt, who figured all Marine officers should be able to hike 50 miles in 20 hours or less.

CHALLENGE TO CLIPPER

The dogs that finish the 50 mile hike are going to present a hiking challenge to Mrs. John F. Kennedy's German shepherd, Clipper.

At least five Marinites and their dogs will participate in Friday's hike.

John Henry, 24, of Mill Valley, a student at San Francisco State College will be setting the pace, trying to do 50 miles in less than 10 hours. The dogs and the other dog owners will follow at a more leisurely trot, aiming at the 20-hours-or-less stipulation of the challenge.

JOINS CLUB

Henry, who did some distance running at University of Kansas and has recently joined the Marin Athletic Club, said he is not too worried about the dogs completing the course. But he figures only a handful of dog owners will make it.

The dogs, with their masters on leashes—or rather, the masters with their dogs on leashes will head from Corte Madera to Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and walk as far as San Anselmo.

Henry said by the time the group arrives in San Anselmo, traffic will probably be getting heavy, so the group will board a truck, driven by Ron-

THEIR DOGS WILL BE BARKING—Mrs. Karen Henry of Mill Valley takes Sheba (left) and Chala, her German shepherds, on walk in training for 50-mile hike with dogs which members of the Superior California German Shepherd Club plan to start from Corte Madera on Friday. Her husband, John, the club's president, figures the dog owners' dogs will be barking louder than the dogs' dogs by the end of the 50 miles. (Independent-Journal photo)

Supervisor Castro Collapses

Walter R. Castro, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, collapsed today while testifying in superior court and was taken by ambulance to San Rafael General Hospital.

He was in "good condition" shortly after 1 p.m. and able to converse with attendants, the hospital said. Tests had ruled out a theory of heart attack and he was being held for observation with a diagnosis merely of fainting.

Castro, who is 67, was testifying in the Superior Court of Judge Thomas F. Keating in a land condemnation suit brought by the California Department of Public Works to obtain nine acres of the Silveira Ranch for the Marinwood interchange on Highway 101.

He appeared as a witness in behalf of Mrs. Mary Silveira and her son George, owners of the property. A few minutes before noon, he suddenly slumped while on the witness stand.

United Ambulance was called immediately. Ambulance attendances administered oxygen and restored Castro to consciousness just before arrival of Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy, the county physician.

Betancourt: Red Terror Is Failing

THERE'S MY STOLEN CAR —LOOK WHO'S DRIVING!

His car stolen, a Mill Valley man early today went out and got it back himself, and the alleged thief with it.

Gilbert Barthe got off work as maitre d' at Ondine Restaurant in Sausalito shortly after midnight, went to pick up his 1962 Ford convertible at Sausalito Auto Service at Johnson Street and Bridgeway, and found it was gone.

He then went with a friend to Juanita's Galley. There was his car in the parking lot with Christopher Hinman just getting out of it. Hinman, 19, a lodger at the Sausalito firehouse, admitted taking the car and also admitted he is on probation for grand theft.

Barthe, who lives at 321 Ross Drive, took Hinman to Sausalito police who booked him at county jail on an auto theft charge.

Venezuela Called Stable

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Romula Betancourt of Venezuela declared today his government is stable despite aggressive Communist subversion directed through Havana from Moscow and Peking.

He said in a speech prepared for delivery at the National Press Club that groups of Red terrorists, by making off with five paintings from a French art exhibition in Caracas and hijacking the Venezuelan freighter Anzoategui, had gained "excessive international publicity" that gives a distorted picture of the situation in his country.

TERROR GROUPS

"These acts of terrorism are commando operations carried out by small groups that have absolutely no help or support from the people of Venezuela," he said.

Betancourt said the Communists had failed to influence organized labor and farm workers, and that among students there was a "lessening of receptivity to their slogans."

"If they have launched themselves on the extreme and desperate path of terrorist acts, it is because they realize they have no popular support and aid," he said.

HAS LOYALTY

"The aid and support of the people of Venezuela, their determination and will to live in democracy and freedom, have given real stability to the government that I represent. But it also has had and continues to have the loyalty and support of the armed forces."

Betancourt explained that the Communist offensive was aimed at Venezuela because, for one reason, it is the principal supplier of petroleum to the United States and the rest of the Western world.

Another reason, he said, is

Hopps' Mansion Goes To Lawyers

Financief Stewart B. Hopps is no longer owner of the sprawling, split-level mansion on Belvedere that overlooks Richardson Bay.

The home, along with $643,407 in encumbrances, was taken over by Hopps' attorney, J. W. Ehrlich and Eugene Clifford, last September as in lieu payment for legal services rendered in defense of Hopps, it was disclosed today.

Hopps was recently convicted of mail fraud in Baltimore and is facing two other trials, an income tax charge in New York and a fraud and conspiracy charge in Los Angeles.

Neither Ehrlich nor Clifford plans to move into the home.

The big house was built in the early 1950s for about $450,000. Since then the value has increased to about $750,000, Ehrlich said.

"We'll put it on the market for sale shortly— for maybe around one million dollars," Ehrlich said.

Clifford suggested that the home might be put up for lease for a while "for perhaps around $2,000 a month."

One drawback, Clifford noted, is that the home has only one bedroom," but it does have an artificial waterfall."

Hopps' wife, Geraldine, deeded the home to the attorneys. In October, Mr. and Mrs. Hopps moved out and established residence in the East.

The transfer of the home covered fees that included the successful defense of a $7,984,000 damage suit filed over Hopps' management of the Rhode Island Insurance Co. This suit was dismissed with a compromise payment from Hopps of $170,000.

Encumbrances that went with the mansion include two deeds of trust totaling $275,000, federal income tax liens totaling $224,787, a California state tax lien of $124,085 and $19,535 in delinquent Marin County taxes.

Underwater Rocket Firing In Bay Called Safe For Fishery Resources

Underwater rocket firing by Aerojet General Corp. near Angel Island and Southhampton Shoals will have no adverse effect on the bay's fishery resources, the State Department of Fish and Game office said today.

Bio-assay tests have been conducted, according to Cecil Martin of the department, and the findings have been sent to the Bay Area Regional Water Pollution Control Board.

The board has also asked for recommendations from the Department of Public Health and Department of Water Resources. All recommendations will be considered at a meeting of the board March 21, said H. C. Knapp, senior engineer.

Aerojet, said Knapp, proposes to run one test a month for the next several months. Rockets are to be fired from barges in deep water on the south side of Angel Island and at Southhampton Shoals. No test can be started until after the March 21 water pollution control board meeting, Knapp said.

He said the rocket fuel is a combination of two chemicals: analine and nitric acid. Seven to eight gallons of the two chemicals will probably be dropped into the water at each test, Knapp said, and more if the test is unsuccessful. However, this will not impair the beneficial uses of the water, he added.

The Navy Department announced last month its intention to convert the Navy Net Depot at Tiburon into a rocket launch test facility. It has been reported that Aerojet-General is negotiating for a contract to operate the testing facility.

U.S. Lessens Inspection Proposals

GENEVA (AP) — The United States indicated today it would settle for fewer than eight on-site inspections a year within the Soviet Union if the Soviet Union accepted a completely foolproof inspection procedure.

Chief U.S. Delegate William C. Foster presented the idea in a meeting of the 17-nation disarmament conference. He stressed that any American willingness to compromise would depend, among other things, on a satisfactory number of inspectors, the areas where they could operate and the criteria under which they could be dispatched.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov ignored Foster's suggestion. He tried to move the debate away from the test ban and into a discussion of an East-West non-aggression pact.

The Soviet Union has advanced the pact idea frequently, but the West wants it considered only in the general framework of disarmament treaty.

I na move unrelated to the discussion of a test ban, Kuznetsov introduced the proposal for a non-aggression treaty between the Warsaw Pact powers.

Britain Working On Secret Bomb

LONDON (AP) — The British government said today that it will continue developing a secret nuclear weapon to be carried by Britain's H-bombers.

The weapon, details of which have not been announced, is expected to help fill the gap left by the junking of the American bomber-borne Skybolt missile until British has a Polaris-equipped submarine fleet.

Mays Signs Up

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Mays, baseball's highest paid player, signed today at an estimated $100,000 to play with the National League champion San Francisco Giants.

Congress Leaders Ask Complete Cuba Pullout

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leading congressional Democrats joined several Republicans today in calling for the withdrawal of all — and not just part — of the 17,000 Soviet troops in Cuba.

A written communication to President John F. Kennedy that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev plans to ship several thousand Russian soldiers home soon was hailed as a significant development.

But members of both parties said the Kennedy administration must continue to press with all of the force at its command for complete exacuation of Soviet military men from the island.

Some informants said the Soviet Union had given assurance that several thousand troops

Plane Crash Bodies Recovered

MOUNT SHASTA (UPI)—The bodies of two men—one the great grandson of the late sugar magnate J. D. Spreckels—were recovered yesterday from the wreckage of their light plane at the 9,500-foot level of Mount Shasta.

The victims were David Belcher, 22, descendant of Spreckels and half-owner of a Fairfield ranch, and Lt. Michael Gooch of Mather Air Force Base. Their bodies were brought down the 14,161-foot mountain in a ski patrol snow-cat tractor.

Hijacked Ship's Saga Ends

MACAPA, Brazil (UPI)—The eight-day saga of the Communist-hijacked Venezuelan freighter Anzoategui was ended peacefully today in this remote Amazon River port.

The Communist "pirates" who seized the 5,000-ton freighter shortly after it sailed from La Guaira, Venezuela, en route to Houston, Tex., a week ago formally surrendered to Brazilian authorities.

Boy Tells Of Killing Family

GREE NBAY, Wis. (AP)—A high school youth whose broodings, over his place in the family circle exploded into a burst of gunfire, has told authorities how he shot and killed his father and stepmother and her three children.

Harry Hebard, 16, described by his minister as "a good, quiet boy" apparently had planned the slayings for some time, according to Dist. Atty. Robert Warren.

Harry, a high school junior, surrendered yesterday.

Killed by shots from an automatic pistol and rifle were the boy's stepmother, Joyce, 35; her three children by a previous marriage, John Rudell, 15, and Judy and Janice, 11-year-old twins, and Harry's thrice-married father, Jack Hebard, 38, a part-time automobile thrill driver and stunt man.

PG&E To Reduce?

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Pacific Gas and Electric Co. asked the State Public Utilities Commission yesterday for permission to reduce electric service rates by about $2,383,000 per year.

PG&E said the reduction was made possible from lower costs of natural gas used in its steam-electric operating plants. It asked for authorization to make the reduction, effective Feb. 26, to domestic customers using more than 100 kilowatt-hours and for general service accounts.

Trial For Treason

ADEN (AP) — The five-month-old republican regime in neighboring Yemen will put its vice president, Dr. Abdul Rahman Baydany, on trial for high treason next week, authoritative sources said today.

The report followed an announcement that Yemeni President Abdullah Sallal had taken over Baydany's duties as foreign minister.

Gas Tax For Harbors

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The share of state gasoline tax revenues earmarked for small craft harbors would be increased from $750,000 to about 2.4 million dollars a year under a bill approved yesterday by the Assembly Public Utilities and Corporations Committee.

SACRAMENTO (AP) —C. Thomas Bendorf has resigned as California's lobbyist in Washington, effective March 3.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown announced yesterday that Bendorf quit and said a successor will be appointed before March 4.

Mosk Aide Named

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Charles A. O'Brien, former executive secretary to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, has been named chief deputy to Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk effective March 1.

O'Brien was in the attorney general's office under both Brown and Mosk until 1961, when he quit to join the governor's staff.

Donner Summit Job

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A 4.5-million-dollar contract to complete relocation of Highway 40 over Donner Summit was awarded yesterday to R. A. Westbrook, Inc., and Morrison-Knudsen Co., Inc., of Sacramento.

Gary Merrill Sued

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A model says actor Gary Merrill burned her ankles with a cigar nine days ago.

Shannon Wolf, 23, sued Merrill, ex-husband of actress Bette Davis for $30,000 and said the undertable attack on her ankles Feb. 11 was enacted in a "manner in which only savage and sadistic human beings had acted during the history of mankind."

4 Students Make Hike Under 20-Hour Mark

Bob Jeffrey, a student at Marin Catholic High School, said today that he and three other students out of 10 who went on a weekend 50-mile hike finished the course.

Jeffrey said he made the distance in 12 hours and 45 minutes. Tim Truett and Dave Smith did it in 17 hours and Mike Smith in 18 hours.

CIA Leader Questioned On 'Picture Gap'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Intelligence chief John A. McCone has been questioned at a secret House briefing about a so-called "picture gap" in the aerial surveillance of Cuba during the Soviet missile buildup, it was learned today.

Informed sources said McCone was pinned down on the issue yesterday, but because of security considerations the sources would give no further details. The Central Intelligence Agency director briefed the House Foreign Affairs Committee behind closed doors and answered questions for more than three hours.

BLANK STRETCH

The "picture gap" is a blank stretch from last Sept. 5 to Oct. 15 in the aerial photographs made public two weeks ago in an extraordinary two-hour television briefing by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and an intelligence aide.

In all the 60-odd photographs flashed on the screen, none fell in the "picture gap," a critical time period at the end of which the Soviets were discovered actually to have readied intermediate range missiles that could reach deep into United States territory.

McNamara was asked about the gap by newsmen in the question and answer session that followed. He answered that aerial photos had been taken on a number of days within the Sept. 5—Oct. 15 period, but that because of lack of time a selection had to be made on which photos to show on television.

NOT SATISFIED

That explanation has not satisfied some observers in Congress and elsewhere, including some generally friendly to the administration.

A Foreign Affairs subcommittee today resumes hearings on Cuban-inspired subversion in other Latin American countries.

One of the committee's newest and most outspoken Republicans, Rep. H. R. Gross of Iowa, said in an interview he has detected a pattern in the testimony of administration witnesses so far.

Gross, longtime critic of foreign aid spending, said the pattern is to combat Cuban Communist subversion by push the Alliance for Progress.

"This is just a big buildup for asking more millions for the Alliance for Progress," Gross said.

Asian Flu Sweeping Across U.S.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Asian flu and other respiratory ailments sweeping across much of the nation are taking an increasing toll in absenteeism, particularly among school children.

Many schools report large numbers of pupils absent because of flu. Several have closed as a health safety precaution and others are considering suspending classes.

No estimate is available of manhours lost in business and industry because of respiratory illnesses.

Hundreds of deaths have been reported.

Although new outbreaks of Asian flu have occurred, a health official expressed hope Tuesday that the wave of influenza—like infection will begin to wane with the approach of spring.

Flu of the Asian variety now has been reported in Michigan and Minnesota, and authorities say the outbreak which hit hard in West Virginia probably is Asian flu.

Previously, the U. S. Public Health Service's Communicable Disease Center at Atlanta had confirmed Asian flu in the District of Columbia and North Carolina, Maryland, New York, Illinois and Kansas.

POWELL SPEAKING—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) speaks informally to reporters in his Washington, D.C. office in answer to charges made recently by Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.) (AP Wirephoto)

Rep. Powell Labels Criticism Of Him Vindictive, Inaccurate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell says it isn't so.

The controversial New York Democrat yesterday broke a silence of several weeks about criticism of his operations in and out of Congress.

"Inaccuracies, misstatements and in some instances lies," the Negro Congressman said of charges by Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.) that the Kennedy administration was going all out to give him favored treatment.

"Vindictive," he called efforts by some of his House colleagues to cut his request for $697,000 to run the education and labor committee.

"I don't want to have any more than any other congressman," he said. "But by the grace of God, I'm not going to take any less."

Reversing a "closed door" policy toward reporters in his office, Powell yesterday gave all comers his views of the criticism that has been piling up about him for weeks.

He said a more complete answer to his critics would come later.

Powell also got some support in his rejection of Williams' Feb. 5 charges from Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Rep. James Roosevelt, (D-Calif.) a member of the education and labor committee.

Kennedy, testifying before a subcommittee on the president's youth conservation corps bill, said a $250,000 juvenile delinquency project in Powell's Harlem district, was "very valuable." The project, of which Powell is a board member, was one of Williams' chief objections.

Roosevelt, at the same hearing, objected to another member "intimating that there is something bad" about the Adam Clayton Powell Foundation. He said the foundation was named for Powell's late father "and it is doing a wonderful job."

Williams charged on the Senate floor two weeks ago that government agencies had been "scrambling around" to do Powell's bidding. He cited alleged loans to Powell-related foundations dealing with housing for the elderly.

Powell said he used the word "lie" specifically to apply to Williams' statements on his tax problems and on the reported housing loans.

Powell had no apology for keeping his wife on his congressional payroll. He said Mrs. Powell, a Puerto Rican, performs an invaluable service at home by translating and handling the large volume of correspondence he gets in Spanish.

As for grumbling by some congressmen about his recent two-week stay in Puerto Rico, Powell said that on this and other personal trips to the island he had paid his own expenses.

WHO FITS A PATTERN?

Educator Tells Needs Of American Schools

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—What American schools really need, says Prof. Roland H. Nelson, are some non-conforming programs for non-conforming students.

"Since many creative individuals refuse to fit an established pattern, and since this refusal to fit may be the essence of their creativity," Nelson said, "it does not seem that schools can be organized to promote, teach, or encourage creativity."

Nelson, assistant dean of the University of Louisville, made these suggestions in a paper presented at the annual convention of the American Assn. of School Administrators:

Make it possible for individual to skip certain grades or courses, not because of outstanding achievement but because of poor or no achievement.

Allow students to become more one-sided than the present school and college requirements allow.

Provide for more leaving and returning to school by individuals, without requiring that they go back to that rung of the educational ladder where they were when they left it.

Because public schools are organized to provide for large groups of students, Nelson said, the creative student who does not conform to traditional patterns will continue to be placed in the category of the "educationally inept."

He acknowledged that his suggestions would be costly and time-consuming.

"We would never be quite certain at any time whether or not we were providing a haven for intellectual non-conformists, anti-intellectual bums, or just bums," he said.

"But we do have to recognize that the more effectively we organize to educate the intellectual conformist, the more effectively we organize to eliminate his opposite."

Frances A. J. Ianni of the U.S. Office of Education told the same panel session: "There are both conformists and non-conformists who are creative. These students have special problems and require special handling.

"In society today we must have a special program for the creative student. I don't mean a free-for-all classroom, but a carefully controlled situation."

San Francisco's main public library has a collection of 500,000 books.

FAIRFAX STUDENTS' IQ KEPT SECRET

Trustees of the Fairfax School District last night debated for over an hour but failed to reach a decision on whether to tell parents their childrens' intelligence test scores.

The problem, Supt. Homer Sisk said, is not that trustees want to keep the truth from parents. The problem is whether the test scores represent the truth.

Sisk said that a child taking an intelligence quotient text can score 105 one day and 140 three months later.

He said many districts prefer to report the test results "in terms of range rather than the actual score."

The Fairfax School District gives achievement and intelligence tests to third, fifth and eighth graders each year. Parents are told achievement test results, said Sisk. But trustees tabled any action of intelligence tests.

They will discuss it again at their next meeting at 7:45 p.m., March 19.

Board members agreed to hold a special meeting at 7:45 p.m. March 5 to discuss district building plans. The board is considering a bond issue to finance three new classrooms and buy a site for a seventh and eighth grade school.

Apartments Approved Despite 'Worries'

Approval was given by Marin County supervisors yesterday to a master plan for luxury marine apartments near Enchanted Knolls, despite Mill Valley worries that this may create a population bottleneck at a potential "third entrance" to the city.

The development, Alcan-Marin west of Highway 101, is to front on a northwest arm of Richardson Bay south of Enchanted Knolls and north of Sabella's restaurant. Three-story apartments on a T-shaped area will mostly have water frontage and the gross area per unit was stated at 2,900 square feet including water, or by land alone 1,821 square feet excluding roads.

George D. Monardo of the Mill Valley City Council said that while the council approved in general, it wanted lower density of 4,000 square feet per unit. This it can't enforce as the project is outside city limits.

"This seems likely to become a third entrance to Mill Valley and it might add more congestion to the Enchanted Knolls area," said Monardo.

The "third entrance" possibility would arise through extension of Sycamore Avenue, now ending at Camino Alto, to link with streets in the Alcan-Marin development.

David Van Pelt of the county planning staff said the staff recommended the master plan for which board approval was sought. He said the density was felt reasonable, comparing with the Tiburon Peninsula Greenwood Cove development where the land-and-water per-unit measure works out at 2,558 square feet.

Supervisor Peter Behr confessed himself up against a "hard decision," explaining:

"If this were within incorporated limits, it is reasonably certain that the density required would be less.

"But it is not in the incorporated limits. I don't feel in position to penalize this subdivision because it is adjacent to Mill Valley. . . . Planning has been done with a good deal of thought."

The affirmative vote was unanimous.

that his government has taken an unequivocal stand against the Fidel Castro regime in Havana and against international communism.

He said the situation in Venezuela has improved considerably since 1958 when 10 years of dictatorship ended.

Betancourt conferred with President John F. Kennedy yesterday afternoon and had more White House talks scheduled today. He was to host a reception for Kennedy at the Venezuelan Embassy tonight.

At a White House dinner yesterday honoring Betancourt, Kennedy said in a toast: "We wish the United States to be identified with leaders like you, liberal progressive leaders who believe that the problems of this hemisphere can be solved in cooperation under a system of freedom."

Anti-Digit Dialing Conferences Set

Attorneys will hold a prehearing conference Monday before the State Public Utilities Commission before a formal hearing of the Anti-Digit Dialing League's complaint against all-digit telephone numbers.

The conference before commission president George G. Grover and examiner William W. Dunlop will be held at 10 a.m. in Room 1200 of the state building. Attorney Melvin Belli will represent the ADDL.

The ADDL expects to call on semanticist S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley and psychiatrist Dr. Jack Block, among others, in an effort to prove that all-digit dialing is not only impractical but unnecessary.

Vandals Flood House

Vandals broke a water pipe in a new house under construction at 9 Rose Avenue, San Rafael, flooding the place and damaging the plywood subfloor, it was reported yesterday to San Rafael police by Leon A. De Lisle Jr., construction superintendent for Kay Construction Co. of San Rafael.

TEACHER FIRED

Author Is 'Appalled' By Censors Of Book

SENECA, S. C. (UPI) — Novelist John Hersey says he is "appalled" that a teacher was fired in nearby Georgia High School for having students read his Pulitizer Prize winning book "A Bell for Adano."

William F. Adams, 30, of Seneca lost his job at Stephens County High School in Eastanollee, Ga., last month. The action was taken by the county school board after parents of his eighth grade English students objected to profanity in passages of Hersey's novel.

The book tells of efforts by American troops to teach democracy to persons in a small Italian town after World War II. Adams received a letter from Hersey dated Feb. 13.

Hersey said the children "must be confused by their own parents, acting in the name of piety in such a hateful way."

"I am appalled by this story—appalled for you, but even more so for the children of your classes," Hersey said.

"I would like to make a single point for the board's consideration: The legal and moral test, in cases of language of doubtful taste in literary works, has always rested upon the question, what is the final effect of the whole book upon the reader?

"The admission by one of your interlocutors that he had not read the book but only certain passages containing profanity suggests that this basic question was not asked by the censors in this case.

"I hope my book would pass the test of total effect, especially for readers of a tender age, because of the earnest message it attempts to convey about the nature of democracy at its best."

Adams is appealing his dismissal to the Georgia State Board of Education. Hersey offered to write a letter to the state board in behalf of the Atlanta-reared teacher.

Greenbrae Unit Elects Officers

Victor Donati of 101 La Cuesta Drive, an investigator for the State Public Utilities Commission, last night was elected president of the Greenbrae Property Owners Assn. after William G. Fleckles declined to serve a second year.

Donati was elected by the board of directors, who met in the Greenbrae Co. Real Estate office.

Other officers elected are: Mel Riccardi, vice president; Peter Gottheiner, treasurer, and Mrs. Eugene P. Cates, recording secretary.

Other directors are Fleckles, who was named membership chairman, Irving Ritter, Aaron L. Horstmeyer Jr., Barry Newman, and Robert Miller.

The new officers will be installed at a dinner March 2. On March 5 directors will name committees for improvement, maintenance and publicity and will plan a program for 1963.

CUBA

would be out of Cuba by March 15.

There was no official comment from the White House or the State Department.

John A. McCone, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, was reported to have told the House Foreign Affairs Committee yesterday that several empty Soviet merchant ships were on their way to Cuba.

While urging the administration to press for the withdrawal of all Soviet forces from Cuba, no members of Congress came forward with any concrete proposals as to how this could be accomplished short of force—a policy Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) said he is convinced the Democratic administration shares.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said that while the Soviet pledge to withdraw some troops is encouraging "we cannot be complacent about it until all the Russian troops and technicians manning any weapons are removed."

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.), senior GOP member of the Armed Services group, urged in a separate interview that this country "keep up the pressure" to get all the Russians out.

Senior Tam Girl Wins Lions Speech Contest

Miss Goldblatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goldblatt of 432 Lovell Avenue, contested against three other students, two from Marin Catholic High School and one from Tamalpais. Their subject was "Conformity — A Real Challenge To Me."

Quart Of Gin Stolen

Robert Edward Wade, proprietor of Marin Drive Inn Liquors at 1556 Fourth Street, San Rafael, last night reported to police the theft of a quart of gin from a display shelf near the front door. He said a group of teen-agers had been in the store a short time before the gin disappeared.

Iva Kroeger Breaks Up Trial With Tantrum

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Iva Kroeger broke up her double murder trial again today — with a tantrum and a fainting spell. She was carried from the courtroom and given sedation in the county jail.

She left a litter of law books and legal papers from the defense table that she'd scattered across the courtroom.

Her customary court-disturbing performance prevented any session today. Her husband and co-defendant, Ralph, was to have returned for further cross-examination in the deaths of a couple whose bodies were buried in the Kroeger's basement.

She shouted that her husband "is telling cockeyed lies."

When her attorney and a matron tried to get her into the courtroom she shouted "I ain't going' nowhere."

When they finally got her in she swept papers, briefcase and books off the defense table, shouting "Free papers for everyone."

A matron and bailiff seized her. She then fell forward stiffly, her eyes glazed. Bailiff Emmet Hegerhorst carried her out.

Judge Harry J. Neubarth ordered a doctor and she was carried on a stretcher to the county jail for sedation.

The Kroegers are on trial for the murders of Jay and Mildred Arneson to get title to a Santa Rosa motel. The Arnesons bodies were unearthed in the Kroegers' San Francisco basement.

Ralph has pleaded innocent and Iva in addition has pleaded innocent by reason of insanity. Ralph has remained very quiet in court. Iva has had one outburst after another.

The prosecution dismissed Iva from the witness stand yesterday after three days of testimony because, the state's attorneys said, it is impossible to elicit a pertinent answer from her.

Then Ralph took the stand in his own defense. He said Iva had told him she hired a man to dig the basement hole in which police eventually found Jay Arneson. He also said he was not told by Iva that she had bought the Arnesons' motel and it was possible Iva was not home the last day Mildred Arneson was seen alive.

Iva had testified she knew nothing about the basement hole; she had told Ralph she bought the motel and it was impossible that she had seen Mrs. Arneson on Dec. 15, 1961.

Trial Over Death Suit Continues

Trial over a $200,000 damage suit for the death of Mrs. Helen Bell, 39, on Shoreline Highway almost three years ago resumed today before an 11-man jury in Marin Superior Court.

One woman juror was dismissed from the case because of illness in her family. This left seven women and four men to hear the case before Judge Richard M. Sims Jr.

Mrs. Bell, wife of sanitary engineer John W. Bell of Tamalpais Valley, either fell or jumped from a panel truck driven by San Rafael painting contractor Albert Warren Ellis on the night of June 23, 1960. Ellis said he was driving Mrs. Bell home from the Fireside bar when she jumped from the truck.

Bell and his three children are suing Ellis, and partners who operate the Fireside cocktail lounge, James Bellino and Robert Cavalli.

Leo V. Killion and Harold R. Hayes, representing Bell, contend that Ellis and the bar operators were negligent in not calling for help immediately after the mishap.

On the night of the accident, Ellis called the sheriff's office reporting a body lying beside Shoreline Highway. But Ellis gave a phony identification of himself.

Ellis was later convicted of hit-run driving.

Smithsonian Gets Glenn Space Ship

WASHINGTON (AP) — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. related today that his children selected the name "Friendship 7" for the space capsule in which he orbited the earth three times exactly a years ago.

Speaking briefly at a ceremony in which the capsule, his space suit and the small American flag he carried were presented to the Smithsonian Institution, Glenn said he hoped that the name would prove an inspiration for the continued peaceful use of space.

Glenn recalled that in the early days of the space program the National Aeronautics and Space Administration left strictly to the astronauts themselves the naming of their space capsules.

Glenn said all seven asronauts got together all the names that could possibly be considered appropriate and boiled them down to the last few.

"We knew there would be a lot of international publicity on flights and that they might serve the national interest," he said.

Looking at his children seated in the front row, Glenn said he decided to leave the final choice to them.

Glenn said he considered it interesting that the youngsters selected the name "Friendship" for their country and the number 7 for the astronauts.

Blind Woman Escapes Fire

Fire did $200 damage to the mattress and bedding in a blind woman's apartment in San Rafael yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Betty Aldridge of 530 Canal Street was not injured, firemen said. She apparently alerted a neighbor, Mrs. John Stephens, who tried to douse the blaze with a fire extinguisher.

The bed was still smouldering, however, when firemen arrived shortly after 1:45 p.m. Firemen did not know what caused the blaze.

Woman Is Treated For Slashed Wrist

Gerd Synn Ove Leistad, 35, of 105 Belvedere Drive in Strawberry was treated for slashes on her left wrist last night and transferred to Napa State Hospital.

Joan Buck, 33, who lives with Miss Leistad, reported the injury last night at 11:40 p.m. Deputy Sheriffs Joseph G. Kelly and George Johnsen said both women said they had been drinking and arguing. The officers reported that Miss Leistad had apparently cut herself with a razor blade.

'Easter' The Seal Takes Interest In '63 Cerebral Palsy Theme Girl

"Easter" the seal is taking a special interest these days in little Kathi Moon, 10, a child with cerebral palsy who is 1963 theme girl for Marin's Easter Seal Society, now readying 50,000 envelopes for mailing to Marin residents.

The harbor seal was "rescued" from the mud flats of Sausalito two years ago and brought to the Louise Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael as it was apparently deserted by its mother.

"Easter" has become a special pet for the young and old and this year is mascot for the handicapped youngsters of Marin, such as Kathi. Funds from Easter Seals enable the Easter Seal Society to continue its extensive programs of direct help to more than 4,000 disabled youngsters and oldsters in the county.

Kathi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Moon of 363 Miller Creek Road, Marinwood, is a student at Marindale School there, establishment of which was promoted by the 20-year-old society for the crippled. Kathi also has benefited by entering summer programs of recreation for handicapped children, paid for and sponsored by the Marin's Easter Seal Society each summer for six weeks at Marindale School.

Typing and stuffing of Easter Seal envelopes is an extensive volunteer job, the former being done by high school typists and the latter by members of service clubs including Tamalpais Order of Rainbow for Girls, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Chi Omega, Mill Valley Methodist Women's Club, Fairfax Women's Club, and the Marin Easter Seal Society and its auxiliary.

Two volunteer members have worked many months and are supervising the entire mailing operation. They are Mrs. Frank J. Keaton of San Rafael and Mrs. John Fitzhenry of San Anselmo.

Catholic Book Fair

San Rafael Summer School Set

Summer school programs for San Rafael elementary and high schools, ranging from four to seven weeks, have been approved by the San Rafael Board of Education.

The four-week session, June 24 through July 23, will be for elementary students from third through eighth grades, except for six-week special education programs for deaf, hard of hearing and physically handicapped students.

A seven-week program in the high schools, in which subjects will be taught four hours per day, will enable students to take the equivalent of a full year's course.

Any course offered during the regular school year will be taught in the high school summer program if 30 or more students register for it in advance. Remedial English, mathematics and reading also will be offered. Students may enroll for no more than two courses.

Classes will be held at both San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools, but may be combined for any subject depending on class sizes.

Elementary school classes will be held at Davidson and Santa Venetia junior high schools, but no transportation will be provided. Students may enroll for one or more courses. The summer session will offer slower students a chance to catch up.

Subjects for third and fourth grades, in which students will be grouped according to needs and abilities, will include reading, arithmetic, science, language, music and art.

Students in fifth through eighth grades will be offered reading, mathematics, science, foreign language and creative arts, which will include fine arts, dramatics and music appreciation.

Summer school teachers, to be recruited as needed, will be paid $105 a week.

Belvedere Plan Decisions Delay

SR. CITIZENS WILL BE TOPIC OF PANELISTS

Public responsibility for senior citizens will be the topic on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" tomorrow when four panelists meet with moderator Kitty Oppenheimer from 9 to 10 a.m.

Corlett, president of the board of directors of the Marin Council of Community Services.

Listeners may ask questions by telephone during the program. The discussion will be rebroadcast via tape recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Speed-reading Course Is Set At 3R School

A "Readak" course designed to double the reading speed of an individual will be given adults and students of colleges and high schools at the San Rafael 3R School each Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. for 10 weeks starting Feb. 27.

By use of a technique of placing a finger under the line and training the eyes to follow the fingertip at increasing speeds, normal speed of about 250 words a minute can be increased to more than 800 words, it is claimed. Edward Beardsley of Corte Madera will give the course.

Intoxicated Driver Given $276 Fine

Thomas Hunt Belford, 44, of San Francisco was fined $276 yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court also ordered Belford not to drive at all for the next three months. Belford was arrested on Highway 101 on Feb. 2. He had a prior conviction in 1956 in San Francisco, but this was stricken from the record.

DeKaplany Defense Attorney Weeps In Final Summation

SAN JOSE (UPI) — Geza de Kaplany sanity trial ended yesterday in a burst of oratory that saw the defense attorney break down and weep in his final summation to the jury.

Judge Raymond Callaghan said he planned to give the jury about 45 minutes of instruction today and then send the 10 men and two women out to deliberate deKaplany's fate.

It will be up to the panel to decide whether the former Hungarian freedom fighter was sane when he tortured his wife, Hajna, with acid last August. She died almost five weeks after the attack.

The emotional defense summation yesterday and cool prosecution rebuttal provided a marked contrast for the jurors.

Attorney E. F. DeVilbiss spent eight hours and 22 minutes attempting to persuade the jury that the elegant deKaplany had been stricken with an acute schizophrenic reaction the night of the attack.

In the process he attempted to discredit the prosecution psychitrists—all of whom testified that in their examination of the defendant they could find no evidence of mental illness.

He wiped tears from his eyes several times as he cited "the three great tragedies in this case," which he cited as the victim, another woman and the defendant's mother.

"Our hearts cry out for this woman (Hajna)," he told the hushed courtroom. He said the happiness of her marriage to deKaplany, which took place five weeks before the attack, never led her to expect that she would die at his hands.

He said the other woman was Mrs. Jane Hadju who allegedly told deKaplany that his wife was having an affair. "She is going to regret she said that all the rest of her life," the attorney exclaimed. It was this incident which the defense says triggered the schizophrenic act of violence.

DeVilbiss said the defendant's mother, 72-year-old Teresa deKaplany, who is in poor health and living in Hungary, was "losing the last of her four sons" in Geza. Three other sons died in World War II or in the abortive Hungarian revolt against Russia.

The attorney urged the jury to consider the evidence carefully "and I'm sure you'll find this man is criminally insane."

Dist. Atty. Louis Bergna, in his rebuttal, once again attacked the defense contention that deKaplany was the victim of acute schizophrenia.

Bergna attacked the theory that deKaplany's alter ego, an evil personality called Pierre LaRoche, committed the crime which the doctor himself could not commit.

Bergna said the "Pierre routine" could be immensely harmful to the entire judicial system of the state since everyone who broke the law could always invoke a mythical Pierre.

Defense Education Act Due Discussion

A State Department of Education representative will discuss the National Defense Education Act tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the Civic Center at a school forum in the office of the county superintendent of schools.

J. Graham Sullivan, the department's NDEA administrative chief, will talk about accomplishments of the act and prospects for future federal aid to science, language, mathematics, and counselling.

TIDELAND OIL DEAL HINTED BY SENATOR

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Three senators hint the Brown administration may be seeking a quick deal for big tideland oil revenues to help balance the budget.

The lawmakers in a statement yesterday said it would be improper for the State Lands Commission to take action Feb. 28 on a proposed agreement between the city of Long Beach and the developer of the East Wilmington oil pool.

"I don't want lands leased on a royalty basis until the terms are made public," declared Sen. Virgil O'Sullivan (D-Williams).

"The legislature has not yet had an opportunity to see the agreement. In our minds, questions are raised," said the statement.

Sens. Stanley Arnold (D-Susanville) and Stephen P. Teale (D-West Point) also said they were opposed to the signing of any tidelands contract until the legislature has studied the matter.

A bill has been introduced by Sen. Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles), to authorize the commission to enter into tideland agreements and prescribes contractual procedures.

A spokesman for the commission denied that any action would be taken to close a deal.

"We're meeting to hear a staff report. We'll also listen to interested parties who wish to testify from Long Beach," said the spokesman.

Most money from oil royalties goes now to the California Water Fund. However, Gov. Edmund G. Brown has proposed as part of his tax program that 26.3 million dollars of these royalties be put into the General Fund next year.

"Is the issue here that of meeting the gap of a single year's budget?" the lawmakers asked.

Brown said in his budget message that increasing tideland activity is putting more money into the water fund than was anticipated or is now required.

Novato Pool Agreement Is Gaining

Novato Unified School District trustees last night approved their own version of an agreement with the City of Novato for a municipal swimming pool on the high school campus.

On Jan. 22, the city council approved a tentative agreement which was sent to the school district. Supt. James Bunker sent it to Douglas J. Maloney of the county counsel's office for review. Maloney wrote his own version. Last night the school trustees went over both agreements, and made some minor changes of their own. It will now go back to the city council.

The board authorized taking $2,100 from the general fund toward purchase of 12 acres of the Sanchez property on Sutro Avenue as a school site. The state will allow $88,200 which is the highest appraised value. The Sanchez family agreed to sell for $90,300.

The Novato School Board also:

1. Accepted the addition of six classrooms and a multi-use room at Rancho School as completed.

2. Called for bids for a five-classroom addition to the high school, to be opened on March 19.

3. Accepted the resignation of John Evenich, a custodian at Olive School.

College Art Show Opens Tonight

An exhibit of more than 70 works by 15 College of Marin art instructors will open at 8 p.m. today in the art gallery at the Kentfield campus.

The exhibit will be open to the public through March 19, said Edwin A. Cadogan, head of the fine arts division.

The show includes pottery, sculpture, oil and watercolor paintings, prints, weaving and jewelry by Mrs. Frieda Burkhart, Ernest L. Caillat, Doris Chatham, Harry Crotty, Ross Curtis Jr., Edward Johanson, Nancy Kenealy, John Lynch, Frank Milner, Jose Moya del Pino, Robert A. Raible, Henry Reinecke, Raymond Rice, Frederick Roth, and Cadogan.

Vacations, Benefits On Larkspur Agenda

Vacations and fringe benefits for employees and the status of the proposed abandonment of numerous streets existing now only on maps will come before the Larkspur City Council at an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. today in the city hall.

An ordinance to change the financial duties of City Clerk Isabelle Moore and a schedule of items needing discussion at council work session also are among items continued from the Feb. 6 meeting, said City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper.

Burned S.P. Tunnel Already Reopened

Southern Pacific Co. announced in San Francisco yesterday that its Chatsworth railroad tunnel near Los Angeles, swept by fire last Thursday, was to be reopened late today.

The tunnel already has been re-lined with concrete.

The Puerto Suello tunnel of S.P.'s subsidiary Northwestern Pacific Railroad in San Rafael was swept by fire 580 days ago. It has not yet reopened. The railroad wants to abandon it permanently.

Sacramento Art Center Defeated

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sacramento city voters yesterday overwhelmingly defeated a 17.9-million-dollar bond issue for community and arts centers.

The final unofficial returns last night showed the vote was 14,090 in favor of the bonds and 31,056 against. A two-thirds yes vote was needed for passage. Slightly more than 50 per cent of the voters turned out.

Federal Judge Thomas MacBride, a leader of the bond people apparently do not want to pay for it at this time."

He said he felt the voters made "a grievous mistake," but indicated there were no plans for another election soon.

The bonds would have financed two centers: One, a four-block convention-theater complex, and the other a two-block arts center.

Lucky Drive Gate To Be Improved

The Town of Corte Madera has ordered $1,240.47 in new equipment to operate the Lucky Drive gate that controls most of the town's drainage, including Lagoon 2, and is considering replacing the gate inside the lagoon, Mayor Edward W. Colthurst said today.

He and Councilman Norman R. Barnett and Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow also agree to consider flushing the lagoon more often, he reported after a meeting with three residents who had complained of mosquitoes, rats and debris in the lagoon.

Colthurst said he would meet again in three or four weeks with the residents: Jack Hauser, secretary-treasurer of the Lagoon No. 2 Assn., Lewis J. Workman, a civil engineer with water control experience, and Edward Nemer.

Fire Group To Install

Officers of the Marin County Assn. of Fire Departments will be installed March 2 at the Star Hall in San Anselmo, with the Kentfield Fire Department as hosts.

Officers to be installed by Osmer Gourley, president of the State Firemen's Assn., are:

William Williams of Kentfield, president; Max Robison of Sausalito, first vice president; Allen A. Olsen of Tiburon, second vice president; W. Herb Lane of Fairfax, secretary; Anthony Schunk of San Rafael, treasurer; William Lellis of Larkspur, sergeant-at-arms, and Pierre Giacomino of Alto, property clerk.

In Puerto Rico, the sun shines 360 days a year. Temperatures average 76 degrees Fahrenheit, with only a six-degree variation between winter and summer.

Brown To Unfold Welfare Program

SACRAMENTO (AP)— Proposals for sweeping changes in California's public welfare system and in school curriculum occupied Gov. Edmund G. Brown and lawmakers today.

In separate developments:

1. The governor's office announced that Brown would outline his welfare reform program in a special message to the legislature tomorrow. He's expected to recommend a major overhaul.

2. Chairman Charles B. Garrigus of the Assembly Education Committee sponsored a bill to downgrade what he considers luxury courses in California's elementary schools.

Garrigus (D-Reedley), said the present curriculum is far too cluttered and many schools are faltering on basic subjects. His bill would no longer require such subjects as morals, manners, citizenship, fire and accident prevention and public safety.

There were advance indications that Brown's welfare message will stick fairly close to the recent recommendations of a blue-ribbon study commission named by the governor.

The commission's report urged action primarily to take the emphasis off the dole in California's 750 million dollar a year outlay of federal, state and county funds for the needy, and concentrate instead on rehabilitation.

In addition, the study group advocated transfer of State Social Welfare Board policy and personnel powers to the state director of social welfare. The board would be left with only advisory and research functions.

In submitting his school curriculum bill, Garrigus said morals, manners and citizenship are the proper responsibility of the home and can best be taught there.

"If we are going to provide the schools with adequate time for the three Rs, English, math, foreign language and American history, these less important required courses must go. They are luxuries we can no longer afford."

Asked for comment, Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, said he didn't know of the bill and that he had no idea whether he'll back it.

"I want to teach morals and manners through attitudes rather than through specific subjects," he said.

"I haven't read this bill, but it probably represents an attempt to get this sort of thing into proper perspective. I'll just have to wait until I've read the bill before I can comment."

Supervisors Pass Child Care Study

County Probation Officer Walter H. Busher yesterday afternoon won supervisors' permission to apply for $4,025 in National Institute of Mental Health funds, and to the Rosenberg Foundation if necessary, to conduct a month-long study of a new child care program under the Marin County Juvenile Court.

County Counsel E. Warren McGuire found nothing to require expenditure of county funds. As Busher outlined the project, in fact, there will be a 15 per cent reimbursement to Marin County for use of facilities in the study.

Just how the money will be obtained was a little uncertain. Busher thought a pre-study proposal should be submitted to the State Department of Mental Hygiene as a channel for the federal funds. Alternatively it was suggested that the Rosenberg Foundation might assist.

Busher said the project arose out of past study of needs of the Juvenile Court and that a master plan will soon be submitted to the board. A major recommendation, he said, "will relate to the operation of a progressive and unique kind of residential treatment program which will require the active participation of not only the committed children but of their parents as well."

Because the program incorporates several principles not previously implemented in the United States, said Busher, he and Supt. David Fogel of Juvenile Hall "with the active encouragement of enthusiastic state officials" have prepared a pre-study proposal for analysis.

This has been approved by the State Department of Mental Hygiene, he said.

The $4,025 would pay one month's salary to two nationally known child care authorities, their living expenses in Marin, and their transportation to and from Marin.

Tam Valley Street Changes Approved

Six changes in names of Tamalpais Valley streets were authorized by county supervisors yesterday on recommendation of the county planning commission, to eliminate duplication and help police and fire protection services.

The board was assured that people of the area have been consulted and in some instances are already using the new names. In one case maps now in existence differ as to which name is printed.

A part of Almonte Way is to be known henceforth as "Bencich Way" where it passes through the Little City Farms subdivision.

Bay View Road is to be changed to View Point Road through the Tamalpais Woods subdivision.

Fairview Avenue will be changed to Quadros Way from West California Avenue to its western terminus in Fairview Park subdivision.

Willow Way changes to Wisteria Way on the map of Wisteria.

The portion of Spring Drive from its southwestern terminus to Marin Drive (also known as Spring Street) will be changed to Autumn Lane in Tamalpais Woods subdivision.

The supervisors also:

1. Approved extension to the end of 1965 of Sausalito School District-Federal Housing Authority's in-lieu payment of about $31,500 annually to the district as compensation for property taxes not collected in federally-owned Marin City land.

2. Authorized acceptance of the Wolfe Grade overpass at total cost of $30,061.10, and final $3,006.11 payment to Ghilotti Brothers.

3. Approved Stannard and Co.'s proposal for installation of storm water pumps on Vendola Drive at the old septic tank site, first step in development of complete drainage plans for the Santa Venetia Flood Control Zone.

4. Set church site-multiple unit amendment to Marinwood Master Plan for hearing with other Marinwood matters at 2 p.m. March 19; set appeal on Marguerite Copp property between Inverness and Inverness Park for hearing with other West Marin matters at 2 p.m. March 12.

5. Adopted a resolution approving efforts to boost the state annual lump sum for maintaining county veterans service offices from $500,000 to $600,000, dut to dilution through establishment of a new Los Angeles office.

6. Amended an ordinance to give parking space west of the courthouse to jurors exclusively, county employees to be notified with Feb. 28 paychecks and their cooperation requested.

Tense Nerves Block Bowels

New laxative acts on colonic muscles...de-constipates overnight.

The muscular wall of your colon contains nerves known to medicine as Auerbach's Plexus. In regular people, these nerves tell the colon muscles to propel and expel waste from the body.

But tense nerves or emotional upset can block your normal bowel habits. Your colon muscle impulses are no longer strong enough to eliminate waste—which dries and shrinks, further aggravating the condition.

The most effective relief, many doctors say, comes from a bulking action combined with a colonic nerve stimulating action. Of all leading laxatives only a new tablet called COLONAID gives you this special combination for 3-way overnight relief:

(1) COLONAID stimulates colonic nerve network, to further activate and regularize its muscular "movement". (2) COLONAID's unique re-bulking action helps re-tone tense colon muscles. (3) COLONAID moisturizes for easy passage without pain or strain.

COLONAID even relieves chronic constipation overnight; yet it is clinically-proved gentle even for expectant mothers. Get COLONAID today. INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢.

CHERRY BLOSSOM TIME NEARING

Cherry blossoms are in their annual spring glory in early March at San Francisco's Golden Gate Park, proving a fine spot to take visitors here in the Redwood Empire. Hisoka Chan, in native costume at the park's Japanese Tea Garden, admires the delicate pink blossoms.

Variety Of Potatoes Are Grown In Ohio

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A farm 10 miles south of here contains a field in which 21 varieties of potatoes grow in neat plots.

It is the Barth farm near Poland, and purpose of the plots is to show the difference in potato varieties and point out the ones which have promise for use in Ohio.

Stinson-Bolinas Sewer Survey Planned

County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost was handed a new title by supervisors yesterday, that of "project coordinator" for a sewage disposal feasibility survey including Bolinas and Stinson Beach.

Included in the area will be land within the Bolinas Public Utility District, Bolinas Beach Public Utility District, Stinson Beach County Water District, and some mostly ranch territory solely under county jurisdiction, the whole comprising the watershed into Bolinas Bay.

The board also asked the county counsel to ascertain whether the county has power to assist financially in the survey.

These actions followed receipt of a letter from presidents of the three districts, and speeches by Sherman Smith and Hugh Dougherty, presidents respectively of the Bolinas Public Utility District and the Stinson Beach County Water District.

All three districts are agreed, said the letter, on joint sponsorship of an economic and engineering survey to determine the feasibility of as sewage collection and disposal complex in the watershed area.

Frost's services were asked and his recommendations requested as to area included, and means of sharing costs. The county was asked to participate in the cost proportionate to "those few parcels of land not presently within the three districts."

Federal aid might be available for such a planning project, it was pointed out.

"A remarkable achievement in cooperation for a common purpose and the common good in the future" was Supervisor Peter Behr's summary of the situation. Chairman Walter R. Castro warmly concurred, suggesting "there should be more of this."

Hub City Schools Finally Own Sunny Hills Site

Trustees of the San Anselmo School District learned last night that the district finally owns the 13.25-acre school site acquired from Sunny Hills after a long legal action.

Supt. Stephen L. Parodi told the board the transfer took place Feb. 5. It was the conclusion of a condemnation action that took more than a year.

The school acquired the site and a road easement for the court-established price of $267,505. Parodi said the district will build a school on the property in about two years. It will probably be for seventh and eighth graders.

Board members discussed an arrangement that would permit Sunny Hills to continue using the land until the school district is ready for it. Parodi said he would meet with the county counsel to work something out.

In other action the school board agreed to hold summer school from June 19 to July 19 at Brookside School instead of Isabel Cook School. This will give workmen time to install fireproof transoms and doors at the latter school, required under the fire safety laws.

Parodi said the project, which includes fireproof glass in transoms and automatic transom closing devices, will cost about $2,500.

The San Anselmo School board also:

1. Agreed to have garbage service three days a week at all schools, raising the collection fee from $540 to $1,620 a year. This, to take effect April 1, will comply with a no trash-burning order issued by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, Parodi said.

2. Learned that the district will need two additional classrooms and two more teachers next year to avoid double sessions. Parodi said the classroom need will be filled by additions at Wade Thomas School when they are completed Nov. 1. Until then, the district may have to rent additional space or go briefly onto double sessions in some classes, he said.

3. Authorized repair of the foot bridge at Brookside School to be done by district personnel. The work will cost about $500, Parodi said.

4. Adjourned until 8 p.m., March 19.

Hawthorne Terrace Assessments Cut

Hawthorne Terrace homesite owners will get a cut of about $100 each in their sewer assessments, Richardson Bay Sanitary District directors agreed Monday night.

The district has decided to contribute about $40,000 of the $192,000 estimated project cost from connection charges, secretary Samuel A. Fletcher said. This leaves $152,000 to be paid in assessments and lowers the homesite assessment from about $450 to $350.

TV By Light

CHICAGO (UPI) — Lighting fixtures attached to the wall or ceiling add to the relaxation of television viewing, according to the American Home Lighting Institute, which says a television tube is not designed to be viewed in a darkened room like a movie screen.

2 NEW SAINTS — Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton may become the first U. S. native born saint as result of the Vatican's approval of her beatification. Born in New York in 1774, she turned to charitable work after the death of her husband. A convert, she founded the Sisters of Charity of Joseph. She died in 1821. The beatification of John M. Neumann, bishop of Philadelphia in the 1850s has also been approved. (AP Wirephotos)

Seminary Announces Curriculum Revisions

A major curriculum revision, designed to allow students more time for studies in their particular fields, was announced today by San Francisco Theological Seminary President Theodore A. Gill.

The number of class hours per week and credit units required for graduation will be lowered for the 1963-1964 school year while the number of required elective courses will be raised.

The new curriculum requirements, to be spelled out in full in the seminary catalogue due for distribution April 15, are:

1. Waiving required courses if the student mastered the courses in his college studies.

2. Granting academic credit for required on-the-job training in churches.

3. Shortening the time allowed for Hebrew and Greek language studies during the first year.

4. Combining the subjects in the practical theology field into six courses under the term, "The Parish Ministry."

5. Appointment of a director of Bachelor of Divinity studies to act as a consultant to students on their individual programs of study.

Increased recognition of the high quality of religion courses now being taught in college and the higher quality of students at the seminary, indicated by this year's junior class achieving the highest test scores of any class in the seminary's history, prompted the new curriculum, according to Gill.

Justin Morrill was the Vermont representative who proposed the land grant college bill and shepherded it through Congress.

K.O. Polio Sunday Set March 10

Medical and lay volunteers are concentrating on the inoculation of children against polio in the third K. O. Polio Sunday, to be held in Marin County and the rest of the Bay Area on March 10.

"The danger of naturally occurring polio is greatest in children," said Dr. Eugene P. Shatkin, polio committee chairman of the Marin Medical Society. "They are also the main source of infection. They can spread polio virus to their parents or other adults in close contact with them. So the danger of family groups contacting polio is increased."

Dr. Shatkin stressed that persons who have already had Type I and Type II Sabin oral vaccine still need Type III for complete immunization.

Igor Sikorsky demonstrated the first practical helicopter in the United States, in 1939.

42 In Running For School Districts

More than 40 candidates have filed for April 16 school district elections in Marin, according to the Marin County superintendent of schools office.

A total of 42 new candidates and incumbents filed as of yesterday. Deadline for filing is March 1.

However, no candidate has yet filed for trustee elections in five districts: Sausalito, Point Reyes, Lincoln, Lagunitas and Union Joint.

Ross leads in the number of candidates to file, and a lively contest seems to be shaping up there. Six new candidates have filed for two trusteeships in Ross. Incumbents George D. Hart and Chester Noyes had not filed as of yesterday.

New candidates in other districts are Sidney R. Kerston of 2108 Vineyard Road, Novato, for Novato Unified District; Fred C. Hannahs of 440 Ridge Road, Tiburon, and Leonard M. Sperry Jr. of 2 Spring Lane, Tiburon, both for the Reed District; Deloss M. Wood of 423 Calle De La Mesa, Novato, for the San Jose District, and Lincoln Gay Maclise of 31 Woodside Way, Ross, for the Ross District.

Latest incumbents to fill for re-election are Robert E. Oliver of San Rafael for the Marin Junior College District and Roy R. Bunt of Nicasio for the Nicasio District.

Honor Students

Two San Rafael students at University of California at Riverside have been named to the dean's list for scholastic achievement during the fall semester. They are Peter F. Stokely, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stokely of 45 Marinita Avenue, and Richard L. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O. Robertson of 20 Pepper Way.

'Southern Marin Career Day' Set March 30 At Tam High School

"Southern Marin Career Day" will be held March 30 at Tamalpais High School to provide students with opportunities to explore various occupations by meeting people employed in those jobs.

Success of a career day held last year solely for Marin City youth caused its expansion this year to include Sausalito, Marin City and Mill Valley.

Speakers will give the general outlook in job opportunities and several persons will speak on their own fields informally with students. The day begins at 10 a.m. Chairman is Mrs. Moses Beard of Marin City. Helping plan the event are the Marin Council of Community Services, Mill Valley American Assn. of University Women, Marin City Schools and Education Committee, Tamalpais High School, College of Marin, Richardson Bay School, California State Employment Service, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts and Young Men's Christian Assn.

Nature Group Tour

A tour of Duxbury Reef on the Bolinas peninsula will be conducted by naturalist Margaret Best Friday for the Marin Nature Group. Meeting place will be Circle Drive at the College of Marin, Kentfield, at 11 a.m.

Musical Will Open At Sabella's

"This Must Be the Place," the musical comedy show which played to standing-room-only audiences last fall at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley, will re-open March 9 at Sabella's restaurant.

Directed by Dick Dawe, the show will be 60 per cent the same but with some new songs and some new cast members. Most of the cast is from Mill Valley.

The musical show was written by Walt Lowden and Bern Healey of Mill Valley and the music is by Josh Portugal. First produced by the Homestead Valley Players, it is now being sponsored by a newly-formed, non-profit organization, Marin Variety Theater Inc.

Curtain time is at 9 p.m. each Saturday in the restaurant's main banquet room. It is theater only, not cabaret, according to Morris Batz, president of the organization.

Vets Cancel Exemptions

Twelve proposals of increased assessments due to relinquishment of claims to veterans exemptions were put before county supervisors yesterday.

Without discussion, the board voted to hold formal hearings at 9 a.m. March 12. It appears that the property owners appeared voluntarily as result of recent statements by the Grand Jury and the district attorney, promising no prosecution in case of prompt admission of wrong claims.

Six of the cases were from the Belvedere-Tiburon area, two were from Mill Valley, two from Sausalito, and one each from Ross and Kentfield.

Gallinas Boat Club Lashes Report It's 'Problem Area'

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Gallinas Boat Club members are incensed over their home neighborhood being classified as a "problem area" in the preliminary report of a San Rafael planning study.

The club, announced Albert Borden, president, voted unanimously at its latest meeting to protest the classification and ask that Daniel P. Coleman, who heads one of two firms making the study, provide "a full and complete clarification of these statements."

Thirteen "problem areas" are listed in the report of the study by Dan Coleman Associates and William Spangle and Associates for the City of San Rafael. The report is to be the basis for a city general plan. It goes beyond city limits for geographical reasons, embracing the San Rafael basin and the Santa Margarita and Gallinas valleys.

Of the 13 "problem areas" it lists, only two are outside the city limits. One of these is Gallinas Village.

"If this be a problem area, then we must ask to whom are we a problem?" demanded Borden in a letter to the writer.

"The residents of Gallinas Village have for some time taken a great deal of pride in their resourcefulness and accomplishment in resolving problems and providing themselves with a better place to live.

"It might be well to note that Gallinas Village was one of the first areas to institute a community services district, the purpose being to provide recreational facilities for the community and to overcome an impending sanitation problem. They recognized and accepted the burden of being included in a flood control zone. They recently presented a request to the board of supervisors that petitions be circulated around the area to establish a district that would provide for the dredging of Gallinas Creek from the bay to the Civic Center—an undertaking unique in our county, for if this is accomplished it will be the only such district providing such a facility for county use."

The paragraph in the Coleman-Spangler report which upset the Gallinas Village residents describes the area as follows:

"This is a comparatively new development built soon after World War II and now showing signs of deterioration. It is a single family dwelling area typical of the early tract developments, built to minimum code standards and lacking in interest and open spaces. Deterioration is not yet very serious. The U.S. Census of Housing reports 18 deteriorating and five dilapidated housing units out of a total of 391 . . Further study is needed to determine underlying causes of decline in this area."

Coleman, asked for clarification, said he recognized that the people of Gallinas Village have done much to help themselves "but they can't do it all." The district needs help from outside, he said. Since it is not within the City of San Rafael, this help could not come from the city. Nevertheless, "we felt we should point attention to these needs" in the planning study, Coleman said.

The fact that an area is listed as a "problem area" does not mean that it is a slum or that it needs to be demolished or completely changed, Coleman added. It means it has problems peculiar to itself that need correction.

The problems that have beset Gallinas Village are mostly those the residents have united to combat, as mentioned by Borden: floods, inadequate sewer system, lack of recreation facilities.

Gallinas Creek runs behind the subdivision. It has great possibilities for recreation—as recognized by the residents in seeking a district to do dredging and provide boating facilities. This, said Coleman, is the very sort of thing needed to make Gallinas Village a highly desirable home district.

The subdivision was built on very low, flat land. Drainage problems resulted. The developer installed a sewer system which soon provided inadequate.

The Gallinas Village Community Services District was formed to take over the sewer system and provide recreation. The sewers are being tied into the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District, and the CSD is concentrating entirely on recreation.

Gallinas Village's problems seem on the way to being solved. But, said Coleman: "We do not like to point a finger at anybody, but where there are areas needing special attention, we would feel remiss in our duty in performing this planning study if we did not call attention to them. Gallinas Village is such an area."

Fate Of Slayers Is Up To Brown

SACRAMENTO (AP) — How drunk were the two men who tossed gasoline and lighted matches into a Los Angeles bar in 1957, burning six people to death?

That was the key question yesterday in a clemency hearing before Gov. Edmund G. Brown for Manuel Chavez, 30, and Clyde Bates, 42.

They are scheduled to die Feb. 27 in San Quentin's gas chamber for first degree murder.

Their attorneys argued that the pair were too drunk to intend anything.

"They couldn't form a rational thought," said attorney Richard Gladstein of San Francisco.

But Joseph Carr of the Los Angeles district attorney's office said the pair had been thrown out of the bar after an argument with the bartender, and had threatened to come back and "get" those in the bar.

That, he said, made him feel the two intended to kill.

Brown, as is his custom, made no indication as to what his decision will be.

Bates has written a personal appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, which announced yesterday it will hear the appeal Friday and hand down its decision Monday.

Sausalito Artist's Work To Be Shown

Pieces of enamel work by June Schwarcz of Sausalito will be exhibited in the Villa Montalvo art gallery at Saratoga March 5 through 31.

Mrs. Schwarcz has won prizes at the University of Miami ceramic exhibit and the California State Fair, and has been shown in numerous other exhibits.

Contractor Running For School Board

San Rafael contractor L. E. Weisenburg Jr. today became the third candidate to announce for the April 8 election to the San Rafael Board of Education.

Weisenburg, of 29 Sorrento Way, was chairman of the finance subcommittee of the San Rafael Citizens Committee on School Finance and Educational Facilities, which wound up a five-month study last week with recommendations including a four-million-dollar elementary school bond issue.

L. E. WEISENBURG JR.
Third in board race

Already announced for posts on the San Rafael board, which governs both elementary and high school districts, were Carl J. Brown, Sir Francis Drake High School coach, and Mrs. Edythe B. Tait, housewife and longtime Parent-Teacher Assn. leader and substitute teacher.

The three incumbents whose terms will expire are Roderick P. Martinelli, Rex T. Silvernale and C. Paul Bettini. None has said yet if he will seek another term.

In announcing he will run, Weisenburg said:

"The school district is faced with tremendous growth and site acquisition problems along with the necessity to improve present facilities, re-evaluate teacher salary programs and present the best possible education system commensurate with sound business dictates.

"As a general contractor, I am aware of development costs, operating expenses and realize the necessity of formulating policies which will keep the tax impact at the lowest possible level.

"I am acquainted with teacher problems due to the fact that my mother, for some 35 years, was a teacher in the Los Angeles city school system, and I can appreciate the concern of parents for a well-balanced educational program since I have four small children, the oldest having recently entered Laurel Dell Elementary School."

Weisenburg is a 1940 graduate of Stanford University, where he majored in medical science and biochemistry. He was in the Army five years, serving as an artillery officer in Europe and Africa with the Third Infantry Division. He was discharged with the rank of major in 1946.

He moved to Marin County in 1955 in charge of construction for the Trousdale-Murchison interests in Loma Verde. He is married to the former Carol Smith from Los Angeles.

Mental Health Dinner Tonight

Tonight's annual meeting of the Marin Assn. for Mental Health at Sabella's Restaurant promises to be dramatic.

The group's dinner meeting will begin at 7 p.m. After dinner a four-member cast will present a play entitled "The Daily Special." It outlines the rights of all members of a family, presenting a mental health problem and offering some solutions.

Afterward, members will be asked to discuss the meaning of the play.

Americans spent 62.2 billion dollars in 1961 for foods originated on farms in the U.S.

More Reading At Jr. High Level Urged

Greater emphasis on reading at the junior high school level was recommended last night to Novato Unified School District trustees.

Paul Mobley, curriculum consultant for the district, told the board that the school should carry the reading program into junior high school, making greater emphasis in all phases of it.

"Speed reading should be given to the good readers," he urged. "They should be introduced to the classics in reading."

Slow readers should be brought up to average reading during this part of their schooling, he declared.

Supt. James Bunker carried the recommendations into the high school curriculum. He recommended ability grouping in English. Those in advanced English classes should get a large amount of composition, he said.

Other recommendations included: Keep a well-rounded program in science and music in spite of the greater load in reading in the junior high. The junior high should also offer courses in homemaking and woodshop.

The high school should add some course in mathematics, change the shop course by making one separate one on auto mechanics and possibly an electric shop course. Other courses which should be considered for the high school are merchandising and business methods.

Map Of Redistricting Is Given Supervisors

A large colored map of supervisorial redistricting proposals of Marin County's special redistricting committee was given to county supervisors yesterday by Planning Director B. D. Dobbs, in fulfillment of a recent instruction.

Dobbs received thanks and fresh demands.

Accompanying the map was a sheet explaining the number of housing units and persons included in areas proposed for transfer, in accordance with an earlier request by Chairman Walter R. Castro of District 1.

Supervisor William R. Fusselman of District 2, absent when the request was made, criticized this because it lacked information on city populations. "Each supervisor should have in his district a certain amount of both rural and city population," said Fusselman.

"I had anticipated additional questions but so far we did just what was asked for," said Dobbs, promising to get the new information.

Dobbs also seized the opportunity to add that the planning staff had certain ideas of its own about redistricting "and we'd appreciate an opportunity to do some recommending early in this phase of the study —just to get our two cents' worth in, hoping for some benefit."

"That would be helpful," Castro agreed.

Dobbs' population figures showed that the advisory committee meant to add 6,450 persons to District 1,395 to District 2, 4,066 to District 4, and 8,600 to District 5. Only South Marin, District 3, would have no additions.

Bar Accident Damage Suit Goes To Jury

A Marin Superior Court jury of seven men and five women were to decide today or tomorrow the amount of damage that should be paid to a San Rafael brick mason, who was seriously injured two years ago when a car ran into the 751 Club bar at Fourth and C Streets in San Rafael.

The victim was Raymond Fetz, 58 of 1333 Fourth Street, who was crushed against the bar when the car went through the wall on May 24, 1961.

Fetz, represented by San Rafael attorney Richard Clarke, is asking $50,000 damages from Phyllis Joan Weller, who was then 16, and her father, Fred Wellen of 18 Sirard Lane. Phyllis was driving the car at the time of the accident.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori, who has been presiding over the trial since Feb. 6, was expected to turn the case over to the jury this afternoon or tomorrow.

Two others suffered lesser injuries in the same accident: Ethel Mae Schiller and Lowhana Eleanor Wisler, both of 17 Redwood Drive, San Rafael.

Board Against Tax On Renters

A state bid for Marin County supervisors's support of proposed legislation for a special tax on renters and trailer residents received a poor reception yesterday.

By 3-1 vote, with Supervisor George Ludy absent, the board refused to go along with an idea put forward in a letter from Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state, "to reach three million voters who live in hotels, flats, apartments, rented homes and trailer homes and who do not pay real property taxes."

Jordan's thought was to make such people pay $1 a year for an automobile, or $2 on a trailer, into a state fund covering the cost of general elections. Only Supervisor William Gnoss wanted to consider it.

Fusselman Asks New Look At 'Kentfield Rat House'

County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs was asked by Supervisor William D. Fusselman yesterday to "take another look" at the confused situation of the "Kentfield rat house" around which a neighborhood storm has raged for years.

Supervisors last week reversed county planning commission approval of a reconstruction plan proposed by Virginia E. Kirkpatrick as new owner of dilapidated rat-infested premises at 20 Wolfe Canyon Road, leaving a puzzle as to just what might be done next.

Fusselman brought the matter up again yesterday, reviewing such points as a county order to former owner Carmen Garcia to improve the premises, which was never carried out.

"It is unlikely that a court would authorize demolition if the new owner wishes to rehabilitate," said Fusselman. He said the present owner wants to improve the premises but has now been refused a variance necessary because of substandard lot size.

Dobbs, however, said this was "not a non-conforming but an illegal use."

HIKING MORE THAN 50 MILES

Mrs. Ann E. Dornak of Kingsville, Tex., and her four sons (from left) Martin, 9; George, 6; Bill, 13, and Frank, 11, paused briefly yesterday in Seattle on their way to a new life in Alaska. Mrs. Dornak, separated from the father of her children, said her nine other children are staying with relatives. Headed for Anchorage on foot, they accept rides from motorists, but don't think of it as hitchhiking. (AP Wirephoto)

Withholding Tax Proposal Is Opposed

The Marin County Labor Council today announced its opposition to Gov. Edmund G. Brown's plan for converting the state income tax into a payroll withholding tax.

Secretary Hugh Cassidy reported the council, composed of delegates from AFL-CIO unions, had adopted unanimously a resolution "that we vigorously oppose the proposed state payroll withholding tax collection as unnecessary and susceptible to future political manipulations."

The resolution set forth as reason for the opposition:

"Experience shows us that the passage of the federal withholding tax resulted in the shifting of a major portion of the tax burden from the corporations to the personal income tax payer in the United States."

Actress Gets $40,000 In Death Of Husband

NEW YORK (UPI) — Elizabeth Taylor's five-million-dollar negligence suit in connection with the airplane death of her husband, film producer Michael Todd, was settled today for $40,000 in federal court.

The major portion of the settlement will go to the Todds' 5-year-old daughter who was adopted by Eddie Fisher when he married Miss Taylor.

Both Sides Censured In Photo Dispute

Novato Unified School District trustees last night censured both sides in a row over who takes high school yearbook pictures.

The board adopted a policy forbidding school teachers or administrators from soliciting business either for themselves or others on school property during school hours.

George DeTuncq, a high school teacher who has a photography business on the side, complained to the board two weeks ago that pressure was put on the students to buy yearbook pictures from Russ Booth Studios, the official high school photographer. He blamed Michael Gragg, senior class adviser, for the alleged pressure.

Students two days later plastered the high school with signs favoring Booth.

DeTuncq last night had another long letter ready for the board, but it was not read. It questioned the legality of a contract between Booth and the school to take yearbook pictures.

Supt. James Bunker suggested he consult with other districts to see how they handled the matter of yearbook pictures. The board agreed.

Allan Roberts, Hill Junior High School teacher, asked if the ruling meant teachers could not solicit tutoring or extra lessons from their students.

Bunker said that was the general idea, because they were supposed to be teaching them in the classroom.

Jail Cell Doors Are Inside Out

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Someone put the jail cell doors inside out.

Sheriff Don Genung said an inspection of the new six-million-dollar jail-courthouse revealed workmen had hung 70 per cent of the steel cell doors so they opened in instead of out. "Very convenient," he said.

County commissioners promised to look into the matter.

Priest Tries To Disguise Voice

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—The Rev. Patrick Bacon awoke a little late one morning, and knew he couldn't get to a convent in time for the mass he conducts there daily.

He relates that he called the convent, tried to disguise his voice, and asked for the time of the sister replied, "Whenever you get here, Father."

Legion Oratorical Contest Set Sunday

Students from Tamalpais, Redwood and Marin Catholic high schools will compete in the American Legion's 1963 Americanism oratorical contest at 2 p.m. Sunday in the San Anselmo Legion Log Cabin.

The first place winner will compete with those from neighboring counties for the fifth district title on March 3, also at the San Anselmo post's meeting hall. Succeeding contests will lead to a national final with a $4,000 scholarship for first prize.

Two Arrested; Found With Teener Girl

Two men who allegedly were driving around San Rafael at 2:25 a.m. today with a 17-year-old girl in their car were arrested on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The San Rafael girl, already on probation from juvenile court, was placed in juvenile hall for curfew violation.

Jimmie Louis Wheeler, 27, of Building C-28, Apartment 217, Marin City, and Richard Maurice Page, 25, of Richmond, were booked at the county jail. An additional charge of possessing a five and one-half inch dagger was filed against Page.

Patrolman Gilbert F. Freitas said he halted the pair's car at Fourth and Ida streets after following it east on Miracle Mile.

Page's bail wes set at $577.50 and Wheeler's at $525. Both remained in jail, and were due to be arraigned this afternoon.

He's Still Alive 63 Years Later

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—A 78-year-old man who was pronounced dead at the age of 15 and placed in his coffin is one of the liveliest inmates of the County Home here.

Pierre Garcia, believed to have succumbed to pneumonia, brought his funeral services to a halt by raising his arm.

He walks with a cane now but he's ready for action any time.

"If you want to go some place, I'll go," he told a reporter.

Veterans Auditorium On Fairgrounds Urged

A resolution suggesting that the long-discussed Veterans Memorial Auditorium be placed on the county fairgrounds site rather than the Civic Center as provided by master plan was put before county supervisors yesterday with backing of 10 veterans' organizations.

Top priority for getting something started was urged.

The organizations include Posts of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans, United Spanish War Veterans and Veterans of World War I, five being in San Rafael, two in Novato and one each in Larkspur, San Anselmo and Bolinas.

Supervisors agreed that something should be done at least in the way of obtaining information but found themselves unable to plan anything further for the moment. It was decided to continue the matter until March 5 for a full board, Supervisor George Ludy being presently on a trip to Mexico.

Meanwhile it was hoped that the administrator and veterans service officer might at least find out the size of building the veterans want, along with some cost figures.

Discussion brought out that if the structure is put one the fairgrounds property, presumaby with matching state funds, it must be expected the state will wish to make some use of the structure. Chairman Walter R. Castro said it would also be necessary to place the building on piling because of the swampy nature of the land, increasing costs.

Administrator Alan Bruce thought that, according to auditor's figures, combined county and state funds could aggregate $1,600,000 by August of 1969.

Novato Students' IQ Scores Are Lower After Four Years

Novato students score lower in intelligence tests as high school seniors than they did as eighth graders.

A general decline in seniors' IQ test scores from those scored by eighth graders four years ago was reported to Novato Unified School District trustees last night by Fielding Reese, head of guidance at the high school.

Reese offered one possible explanation: the class makeup has altered greatly during the four years because of transfers of Hamilton Air Force Base personnel. So only part of the same students were tested both times.

The board, hoping more testing will provide some answers, authorized application for a National Defense Education Act testing program, for which the federal government would put up $5,127 to the district's $1,277.

S. R. Snaps Tam's Undefeated Mark With 44-41 Win

Tamalpais High School's drive toward the Marin County Athletic League's undisputed basketball championship ran into a road block yesterday as the previously-unbeaten Indians were upset by the San Rafael Bulldogs 44-41 at San Rafael.

The Indians, already assured of at least a tie for the title, will have to wait until Thursday and possible next Tuesday to know if they'll reign as champs or co-champs. Second place Marin Catholic can tie for the title with victories over San Rafael Thursday and Tam next Tuesday. Tam is idle Thursday.

Marin Catholic kept its hopes alive yesterday with a great rally to beat the Novato Hornets 43-39 while Redwood whipped Terra Linda 68-33 in other MCAL action. Drake was idle.

Tam, which trailed by as much as 28-35 in the final period, rallied to 39-40 with little less than two minutes to go. The Indians blew golden opportunities to pull in out of the fire twice in the final minutes by losing possession on "travelling" calls.

Then Bulldog ace Ron Monti connected on a fast break with 45 seconds to go to give the Bulldogs a 42-39 leaod. Tam's Jim Durbin countered with 10 seconds to go on a swisher from the top of the key, but a foul and two subsequent charities by Bulldog Bruce Wold made it 44-41 as time ran out on the frantic Indians.

It snapped Tam's 10-game unbeaten record in league play.

San Rafael trailed 8-12 at the end of the opening quarter, but Monti sparked a rally in the second stanza, scoring nine of the team's 16 points, to put the Bulldogs ahead for keeps at halftime, 24-22.

A slow third quarter ended with San Rafael holding a 32-28 edge which it build to 35-28 early in the final period before Tam started its futile but exciting drive.

San Rafael's John McKinnon, who also contributed vital points in the fourth quarter, led the Bulldogs in rebounding with 12.

San Rafael hit 17 of 37 shots for 45 per cent while Tam was connecting on 17 of 44 for 38 per cent.

Bulldog Coach Mike Diaz called the upset ". . . a team effort."

Tam's Art Ford with 16 and San Rafael's Monti with 13 were team scoring leaders.

Marin's second place Wildcats, meanwhile, had the daylights scared out of them for two and a half periods before they unleashed a blitz in the final 12 minutes that buried Novato 43-39 at Marin's gym.

Marin trailed by 21-28 midway through the third period, but then scored 17 straight points to wallop the upset-minded Hornets. In the final 12 minutes, with Tom Soden and Ron O'Connell leading the attack, Marin outscored the visitors 22-1!

Coach Bernie Schneider said his Wildcat defense concentrated on Hornet act Nick Willard in the second half to turn the tide. Willard score eight points in the first half but only two in the second as he hit on only one of 12 attempts.

O'Connell led all scorers with 19 points while teammate Soden and enemy Willard had 10 each.

Marin hit 21 of 64 field goal attempts and Novato 11 for 38.

In one of the "cleanest" games of the year, Marin got only four foul shots, making one; Novato scored seven of ten from the charity line.

In the game at Redwood, the host Giants were held to an 8-8 first period stalemate by winless Terra Linda but then walloped the visitors by a 60-25 margin in the final three stanzas. Ten Giants figured in the scoring with game honors going to Hillard Witt who had 13. Jim Carroll had 11 rebounds for Redwood.

LOOK AT THE ANGELS ON BIKES

With owner Gene Autry leading the way, the bicycle-pedaling Los Angeles Angels head for the ball park in Palm Springs, Calif., yesterday as they officially opened their spring training campaign. Manager Bill Rigney said the six-miles-per-day bike riding from the hotel to the ball park and return is no gag. He said it proves beneficial in getting the players' legs in shape. (AP Wirephoto)

Warriors Edge Lakers Again, 111-109; Ready For Celtic Invasion Tomorrow

With two straight wins to their credit over the high and mighty Los Angeles Lakers, the San Francisco Warriors were strictly "up" today for tomorrow night's invasion of the Boston Celtics.

"We're after that playoff spot and we've really got some momentum now," coach Bob Feerick said last night aftter Wilt Chamberlain's jump shott from the side in the final second of play gave the Warriors a 111-109 victory over the Lakers. "Everybody feels good . . . we don't feel tired; you never feel tired when you are winning."

Last night's win followed a 122-118 defeat in double overtime which the Warriors pinned on the NBA's Western Division leaders Saturday in Los Angeles. And San Francisco still remains a half-game behind Detroit, who holds down third place in the Western Division but must be evicted by the Warriors if they want to get into the playoff dough.

The Lakers' Dick Barnett, doing a nifty job of taking up the slack for the injured Jerry West, tied the game at 109-109 last night with a 30 footer when nine seconds remained on the clock.

Then came a time out with seven seconds to play during which Wilt Chamberlain, who finished with 39 points, told the huddle: "Get me the ball and I'll score."

Guy Rodgers, second high for the Warriors with 25 points, did just that and the "Big Dipper" put in the winning basket as the horn blew.

Elgin Baylor of the Lakers poured in 39 points to keep Los Angeles in the game during the first three periods but only could account for three more during the final quarter. He was the night's high scorer with 42.

The Lakers still far out in front of the western race, have lost four or eight tilts with West sidelined by a pulled leg muscle.

San Francisco roared off to a hot start, taking a 30-23 lead in the first period which saw the great Baylor account for 16 of the Lakers' points.

Midway through the second period, the Warriors moved out to a 15-point bulge. But five straight points by the Lakers' Rudy Larusso began to pare the margin.

Barnett, who smoked in 24 for the Lakers, paced a Los Angeles rally which saw the Lakers score 10 points in the first two minutes of the third period as he accounted for six or them.

San Francisco hung on to a 93-92 edge opening the final quarter. Barnett shot the Lakers into a brief lead and Chamberlain recovered it for San Francisco. Then the Lakers pulled to within one point three times before Leroy Ellis and then Barnett knotted the score.

GIANT CONTRACTS

O'Dell Signs, But Sanford Says No

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy O'Dell, a 19-victory left-hander, is happier right now with the San Francisco Giants than Jack Sanford, right-handed 24-game winner.

O'Dell signed yesterday with the National League champions for about $25,000 but Sanford unleashed a blast from his Massachusetts home over a contract that didn't reach his reported asking price of $35,000.

"I want to sign," said Sanford. "I want to sign very much. But I had a good year and they just haven't offered me what I think I deserve." Jack lost seven games, won 16 in a row.

"We worked hard and won," he exclaimed. "Few people know this but just before I beat St. Louis 4-2 in the final week I had an operation on my heel to remove an abscess. A 2-inch long cut. Yet I won."

Sanford said Giants Vice President Chub Feeney pointed out that the burly pitcher had only 13 complete games. "But that was the ordered pattern," Sanford rebutted. "Pitch as hard as I can as long as I can and then let the bullpen clean up."

O'Dell had a 3.53 earned run average and struck out 195 batters in 1962. Six of his 14 losses were by two runs or less.

Utility outfielder Carl Boles also signed, leaving six Giants without contracts. Sanford, Orlando Cepeda and Juan Marichal are expected to be the toughest to sign, with Matty Alou close behind.

Willie Mays' signature is apparently just awaiting a proper production. Bob Bolin is on six-months military duty until April.

University of San Francisco is still unbeaten in the West Coast Athletic Conference, but as long as Steve Gray is around you can't count out those plucky St. Mary's Gaels.

USF piled up its seventh straight WCAC win without a setback last night when it bopped winless University of Pacific 63-50.

But the dramatic battle occurred at Oakland Auditorium where Santa Clara led 46-37 at the half over St. Mary's but then crumbled before the Gaels and Gray. The final score was 81-76.

Gray hit 18 points after the intermission and had 28 for the evening. Gene Shields had 26 for the Broncs, who towered over the shorter Gael quintet but just could not stop Gray who scores about eight points more a game than anybody else in the league.

St. Mary's is now 6-1 while Santa Clara reposes on the brink of oblivion with a 4-2 record.

USF was led past Pacific by Ollie Johnson and Eddie Thomas, who had 13 points apiece.

Defending champion Pepperdine, which lost its first five conference games, now have won their last three. Last night it was Pepperdine 56 Loyola 49.

Bob Warlick, who has been outstanding this year but maybe still a little bit of a disappointment, was about the whole show as he bombed 25 points for the Waves.

3 BASKETBALL OFFICIALS IN ONE CONTEST

SAN LUIS OBISPO (AP)—Clutter up the basketball court with a third official and you'd only get more fouls, a cynic might say.

But three officials took the floor at yesterday's Cal Poly-Pasadena College game and, believe it or not, no more whistles than usual blew.

"We had to run a lot less," said Referee Art Stobbe after Poly's 72-66 victory. "I felt less tired after I left the game than when I started it. We were simply able to keep better positions."

The three referees called 36 fouls. Two other games in northern California yesterday averaged 37 fouls each.

One referee worked the baseline to the left of the basket, the second stayed halfway between the baseline and midcourt to the right of the basket and the third worked at midcourt.

There were no arguments and only one conflicting call—one official ruled a ball out of bounds, another called a jump.

Tam To Conduct Wrestling Show

Novato, Redwood, San Rafael 'B' Teams Win

Novato B cagers downed Marin Catholic 57-46 yesterday to tie the two teams for third spot in the junior circuit of the Marin Athletic League.

In other B team action, Redwood dropped Terra Linda 47-33 behind the 17 points of Dave Flowers, and San Rafael whipped Tamalpais 43-32.

The Hornets were led to their victory over the M.C. Wildcats by Bob Phillips who scored 21 points. Buzz Thiercof was the game's leading scorer for Marin as he piled up 23 points in the losing cause.

The Marin Catholic junior varsity cagers clipped the Hornets' wings with a 40-36 victory. The junior Wildcats were led by Brad McDonald and Shamus O'Connell, each with 12 points.

Drake, which was idle yesterday, remains on top of the B Division with a 9-1 record.

Seals Resume Play Tonight In Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A six-day layoff for the San Francisco Seals ends tonight when the Western Hockey League club entertains Vancouver.

The Seals in the Southern Division and Vancouver in the Northern are each in second place challenging for the lead. So far this season each team has won three games from the other.

Coach Bud Poile gave the Seals three days off after their sour performances in a 4-1 loss to Los Angeles Thursday.

"I thought our guys looked tired, but more than that, stale," said Poile. "That's the reason I told them to go and play golf for three days. I hope it works."

Moyer Keeps Title With 15-Round Win

HONOLULU (UPI) — Denny Moyer won his battles with both the scales and home town hero Stan Harrington last night to retain his world junior middleweight title.

Moyer dispelled all rumors that he might have to forfeit the fight yesterday when he tipped the scale at 153½, just under the 154-pound limit.

His unanimous but unpopular decision over Harrington before 5,085 fans at Civic Auditorium came after a close, hard-fought battle which produced no knockdowns.

Harrington, considered the Islands' finest fighter since Bobo Olson, came out swinging and dominated the early going. He bloodied Moyer's nose in a wild second round which saw the champion clinching repeatedly.

Referee Louis Freitas scored the fight 72-69 for the champion. Judge Walter Cho called it 74-68 and referee John Medeiros 71-69. UPI saw it 74-68.

Sleek Dish Of Apple Strudel Brings Added Interest To Track, Field Meets

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

In this day and age of four-minute milers and 16-foot vaulters with fiber glass poles, a leggy 22-year-old blonde from Germany has brought additional interest to track meets.

She is Jutta Heine, a six-foot Dresden doll in white spikes, white shorts and a loose fitting green and white jersey. The cutie from Cologne may never win any beauty pageants but her personality and smile have won over many people.

She was the hit of track meets in Los Angeles and Philadelphia. One writer claimed she did more in seven seconds of sprinting in her first American meet than Parry O'Brien has done in his athletic lifetime. Another called her a "sleek dish of apple strudel."

Some writers had sought to joke with her but Jutta would have none of it.

"I want to win this race," she said in Philadelphia in her best Marlene Dietrich accent before running second. "I'm a serious person. I hope to do well in the next Olympics in Tokyo."

Although coming to America almost unheralded, Jutta has done well in Europe. In fact, at 19 she won the silver medal at 200 meters in the 1960 Olympics in Rome, running second to triple Olympic champion Wilma Rudolph Ward.

Jutta admits she is not the fastest girl in the world. Indoors she was at a distinct disadvantage. A 60-yard dash is not the easiest event for a sprinter with long legs and a big stride.

GERMANY'S Jutta Heine doesn't always win, but who cares?

She had said that she never expected to beat Wilma, yet in her first meet she finished second and Wilma Rudolph Ward came home third.

In New York's Millrose meet, despite three false starts which normall brings disqualification, a concession was made to Fraulein Heine. Meet Director Fred Schmertz nodded his head to the starter and Jutta Heine won at 60 yards. She beat Debbie Thompson of Frederick, Md. The next night in Philadelphia Debbie reversed the order.

Jutta's tour also took her to Baltimore and Louisville. Next summer she plans to run in South America and in the fall will visit Japan.

The AAU invited Jutta to this country, and she is quite happy she made the trip. When she gets home, and her economics studies at the University of Cologne permit, Jutta Heine will work on more than sprints.

"I like to throw the shot put, broad jump, high jump and run the long dashes," says the Teutonic trackster. "These events will be held in the women's pentation in Japan and I want to point for that."

Author Roy Terrell says she can run very fast and has lovely eyes and legs. And Philadelphia writer Sandy Grady says her smile would melt a hole in the Berlin Wall.

Sprint Champion Has A Theory On Running: Don't Do Too Much

By DICK BARNES

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Herb Carper, probably more overlooked than any other good sprinter in the United States, has a theory for running — don't do too much of it.

"Why I've been around on and off for 11 years," he says, "and sometimes I just play around for the whole season.

"The trouble with these fast kids is that they try to run 9.3 every weekend from April to September. That's no way to run."

Carper, who admits track must be a lot of fun if he's kept at it this long, gets more than just pleasure out of his efforts. He was ranked second among U.S. sprinters last winter and has swept dash honors at three West Coast indoor meets this season.

He scored a triple at the Golden Gate Invitational last Friday in San Francisco, with victories at 50, 60 and 25 yards.

In the 25-yarder, Carper showed just how fast a starter he is. Hurdler Hayes Jones challenged Carper to the sprint.

Apparently coaches think Jones is a speedy starter because he ran first leg for the U.S. 400-meter relay team in last summer's meet with Russia.

But Carper had a yard lead on Jones by the time the runners had taken five steps, and he kept the margin on through a 3.1 clocking for the 25 yards.

Carper isi n the record books as several times co-holder of the 60-yard indoor mark of 6 seconds flat. Yet his outdoor best 100 is "only" 9.4, two-tenths off the world record.

"Well, I guess my outdoor training hasn't always been too exemplary," he laughs. "But you just can't run all-out all the time and still last. I don't usually start running 'til pretty late."

Carper, now 26, attended the University of Pittsburgh.

'COACHES WEEK' IN SAN FRANCISCO

Guerin Hits For 10,000th Point In NBA

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

"If I don't make that 10,000th point in my next game, I'll quit."

That was Richie Guerin of the New York Knicks talking Sunday after Cincinnati had stopped him for the second straight game from becoming the 16th player in the National Basketball Assn. to score 10,000 points. Guerin needed 13 points. He got six.

The 6-foot-4 former Iona, N.Y. College star can relax now. He reached and passed the 10,000-point plateau with 23 points last night although the Knicks absorbed a 121-112 lacing from the Detroit Pistons in the feature of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden. Guerin's total now is 10,016.

Guerin hit the 10,000-mark in the second period with Detroit ahead 47-30. The crowd of 6,758 gave him an ovation as the game was stopped and the ball given to him. The spectators little cared that the defeat assured the Knicks of a last place finish in the Eastern Division. Don Ohl led the Pistons with 30 points.

In the first game, the Syracuse Nationals handed the Chicago Zephyrs their eighth straight defeat 118-110 behind Lee Shaffer's 41 points.

In an afternoon game at Boston, the champion Celtics also put on a late surge to win their fourth straight, 129-126 over Cincinnati. In the other NBA game scheduled yesterday San Francisco scored a home court 111-109 victory over Los Angeles.

Boys Baseball Assn. Officers Named

San Anselmo's spanking new Boys Baseball Assn. moved a long step toward the 1963 season today with announcement that Dick Henika, San Francisco milk company executive, had been elected president and the news that this coming Saturday is the close-out date for player registrations.

Hours for registration are 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at San Anselmo Memorial Park. Tryouts for 1963 Little Leaguers will be held Sunday, March 10, at 1 p.m. at the park.

Henika, secretary of the San Anselmo Little League three years and a leader in the Hub City's youth baseball summer program five years, was the architect of the new San Anselmo Boys Baseball Assn.

It encompasses not only the Little League but also the Junior League and Senior League. A constitution and by-laws have been approved and incorporation is planned.

Henika was elected president at a recent parents meeting. His chief assistant is Nelson King, president-elect, who automatically will succeed as president in 1964.

Harry Press, San Francisco newsman, was elected secretary. Insurance executive Dick Street is serving as treasurer for a third year. Walter Anderson again is player agent.

Heading up each of the leagues are: for the Minor League, vice president, Lou Mezirka; Major Leage, vice president, Cy Denning; Junior League (13-14-year-olds), Clay Hauge, and Senior League, (15-16-17-year-olds), Frank Faulkner. All are of San Anselmo.

Novato Rec Policy Gets Approval

A general recreation policy for the City of Novato was approved Monday night by the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission. It will be sent to the city council for review.

The commission favored sponsoring a senior citizen group as a recreation commission project.

A meeting with the city council and Novato Unified School District trustees to select an architect for the municipal swimming pool was set tentatively for Feb. 26, said Edmund Mahany, parks and recreation director. The swimming pool agreement has been tentatively approved by the city council and goes before the school board at its meeting at 8 o'clock tonight.

A special meeting of the commission was set for Feb. 28 to discuss the 1963-64 budget.

Meeting dates of the commission have been changed from the first and third Mondays to the first Tuesday and third Monday of each month at 8 p.m., in the community house.

Proposal To Photograph Young Offenders Is Killed

A 2-2 split of Marin County supervisors yesterday killed a proposal by Prohibition Officer Walter Busher that photographing of juvenile offenders be authorized, primarily to help in apprehending runaways.

The county counsel's office reported there is no legal bar to such procedure.

Supervisor Peter Behr said he considered protographing the juveniles "a sensible tool with proper safeguards.

He was joined in approval by Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

But Chairman Walter R. Castro feared the county could not control use of photographs sent to police departments. Supervisor William Gnoss said such photographing would be considered a "black mark" against the youngsters. Supervisor George Ludy was absent.

Notary Commissioned

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced the issuance of a notary public commission to Robert L. Mathews, 310 Ironstone Court, San Rafael.

Novato Club To Nominate

Dr. Leo Wagner was named to head a nominating committee to select a slate of officers for Novato Community Club Inc. at a short meeting of the board of directors last night.

The nominations will be presented at the March meeting but the election of officers will not be held until April, said Dr. George McDaniel, president.

No other action was taken by the board because of the pressure of the play "Anniversary Waltz" which will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday this week and next, McDaniel said.

Dufficy Says Rumors Bogging Down Recruiting Of County Employees

Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy, soon to quit his job as county physician to operate a new nursing home, told county supervisors yesterday that he is having trouble in keeping his promise to employ as many people as possible from the present county hospital in Lucas Valley.

This, he said, is due to persistent rumors that the county may not close its own operation.

He said he will take over his hospital from the contractors April 15 and be ready to accept patients May 1, but recruiting of county employees has bogged down in rumors.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman promptly brought passage of a resolution putting the board on record that "after the deadline (presumably May 1) the county will not continue to operate a county hospital."

Discussion brought out that perhaps 13 ambulatory cases will remain at Lucas Valley to the end of the fiscal year. But the supervisors were unanimous that the state has condemned present facilities for true hospital use and that only a few employees can be kept for a limited time.

Before Condemnation

A pre-trial conference will be held March 4 on the Tamalpais High School District's condemnation proceedings to obtain a portion of the Ottolini Ranch in San Geronimo Valley for a high school site, Asst. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney announced yesterday.

¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons unflavored gelatine

Place all ingredients in a pot and simmer for approximately 15 minutes. Allow to cool and set. Take one cup of heavy cream, whip and fold into above. Also fold in cup of maraschino cherries. To this add one jigger of Heublein Cherry Flavored Brandy. Pour mixture into slightly oiled six-inch round cake pan, two inches deep. Allow to cool completely, then unmold onto eight inch sponge cake that has been previously liberally sprinkled with the cherry flavored brandy. Add whipped cream borders to top and bottom of cake, also to top edge of rice mold. Drain off excess juice from one can of pitted black Bing cherries, filling in top of cake with cherries as shown above. Sprinkle liberally with Heublein Cherry Flavored Brandy. Keep cool until time to serve.

Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Suggestion: Combine with individual glass of brandy.

Variation On Famous Pecan Pie

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Although many a gardener seems to be born with a green thumb, many a cook acquires a pastry thumb by observing experts at work and by practicing.

If you are still in the pastry-practice class but would enjoy serving Pecan Pie, one of America's most famous desserts, you'll be interested in this newly evolved recipe. Here is all the sweet devastation of the traditional pecan-pie filling, but the crust is a cookie-type base that any novice can produce.

You bake this Pecan Cookie-Pie—just as you do bar cookies—in a rectangular or square pan. Then you cut it in bars or squares, top it with vanilla ice cream, and offer it to your dessert-loving family and friends.

AFTER OUR testing of this dessert, we wrapped the remainder appropriately and stored it in the freezer for about a week. When we tasted it after this freezing, the dessert was still delicious. Should you decide to put half of this pecan sweet in your freezer, just one caution. Take the dessert out of the freezer in plenty of time before serving so it can come to room temperature or the cookie base won't be at its best.

PECAN COOKIE-PIE

2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
⅔ cup dark brown sugar (firmly packed)
½ cup butter or margarine
½ cup dark brown sugar (firmly packed)
⅓ cup flour
4 eggs
1½ cups dark corn syrup
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons vanilla
¾ cup coarsely chopped pecans

Sift together the 2 cups flour and baking powder into a mixing bowl. Stir in the ⅔ cup brown sugar. Cut in butter with a pastry blender until mixture is well blended—it will seem dry. Pat evenly into bottom of well greased baking pan (11 by 7 by 1½ inches or 9 by 9 by 2 inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 15 minutes.

Meanwhile mix together the ½ cup brown sugar and the ⅓ cup flour. Beat eggs just until yolks and whites are combined; add corn syrup, sugar-flour mixture, salt and vanilla; mix well. Pour over the partly-baked mixture and sprinkle with the pecans. Return to the moderate (350 degrees) oven and bake for 40 to 45 minutes. Cut into bars or squares while still warm; when cool, remove with spatula and serve topped with vanilla ice cream or unsweetened whipped cream.

LEMON CUPCAKES

1¼ cups sifted flour
¼ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
¼ pound (1 stick or ½ cup) butter of margarine
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
2 teaspoons lemon juice
4 eggs (separated)

Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt. Cream butter and sugar; beat in lemon rind and lemon juice. Beat egg yolks until thick and pale yellow in color; gently beat into creamed mixture. Thoroughly beat in the sifted dry ingredients. Beat egg whites until they stand in straight stiff peaks; fold in. Spoon into buttered muffin-pan cups filling them ½ to ⅔ full; bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 to 25 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. (If muffin-pan cups each old ⅓ cup, recipe will make 18 cupcakes.) Remove from pans and serve hot or reheat for fluffy texture.

A New World Of Flavor In Old World Cherry Buns

Fresh baked buns can create a feeling of warmth and hospitality for family and guests alike. This versatile recipe for Old World Cherry Buns serves all occasions—breakfast, lunch or dinner — plus those extra special events when good friends call.

OLD WORLD CHERRY BUNS

1 1 lb. tart red cherries
⅓ cup sugar
2 tablespoons unbleached flour
1 tablespoon butter
Few drops red food coloring
1 package active dry yeast
¼ cup warm water
1 cup milk, scalded
½ cup shortening
⅓ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg
4 to 4½ cups sifted unbleached flour

Drain cherries thoroughly. Combine sugar and flour. Add cherries and cook until thick. Add butter and food coloring. Cool and reserve.

Soften yeast in warm water. Add hot milk to shortening, sugar and salt. Stir until shortening is melted; cool to lukewarm. Stir in 1½ cups of the flour. Add softened yeast and egg; beat well. Stir in remaining flour or enough to make a soft dough. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Knead on lightly floured surface until smooth, about 5 minutes. Place in a greased bowl; cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk, about 1 to 1½ hours. Punch down; cover and let rest 10 minutes. Roll dough to slightly less than ½-inch thick. Cut with a 2½-inch cutter. Place 2 inches apart on a lightly greased baking sheet. Cover and let rise until light, about 45 minutes. With fingers, press down center of buns; spoon in cherry filling. Bake at 375° about 15 minutes or until done.

Yield: about 1½ dozen buns.

Peach Igloos

Make the holidays happier by serving "Peach Igloos." Place a slice of hard-frozen peppermint stick ice cream on each serving of pound cake. Top with a canned cling peach half and swirl a stiff meringue over the top. Pop into very hot oven until meringue is golden. Serve immediately.

Tuna Roll Easy Main Dish Meal

TUNA ROLL

2 cups biscuit mix
⅔ cup (about) milk
2 cans (6½ ounces each) tuna
1 medium onion (finely chopped)
⅓ to ½ cup finely diced celery
1 egg (slightly beaten)

Stir together biscuit mix and milk to make a soft dough; turn out on a pastry cloth; turn over and knead half a dozen times. Roll out into a 14 by 9 inch rectangle. Drain tuna and mix with onion, celery and egg; taste and add salt and pepper if needed. Spread tuna mixture over biscuit dough. Roll up jelly-roll fashion; seal ends; slash at 5 even intervals. Place on a well-greased cookie sheet or jelly roll pan, edge side down. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 25 to 30 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

Cheese-Date Loaf

For a simple dessert or snack, team fresh California dates with cream cheese. Soften an 8 oz. package of cream cheese, stir in some snipped dates, shape into a loaf and chill.

AFTER 18-MONTH DEBATE

Marin Girl Scouts To Become Part Of Five-County Council

By a vote of 18 to 13 the Marin County Girl Scout Council yesterday at a special meeting at Arequipa voted to recommend relinquishing the council charter and turning over the council assets to the new San Francisco Bay Council.

The decision followed some 18 months of heavy debate on the issue at both the board of directors and council meetings.

The Marin Girl Scouts, as of July 1, will become part of the larger consolidated council, including the five Bay Counties, San Francisco, Alameda, San Mateo, Contra Costa and Marin.

A 40-member policy making board will administer the new council, members to be elected at an organizational meeting May 29 at the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco. Marin will have a county representative and an area representative and possibly more on the board.

Mrs. Victoria Furst, newly-elected president, presided at the council meeting at Arequipa.

Sometimes 'Model' Children Begin To Brood Over Themselves

"Model Boy Kills Self," the headline said. Do you remember it? A boy we'll call "Henry" was found hanging from a rafter in his garage. He was 17, an honor student in high school. He was in good health and had loving parents. His future seemed rosy, but he committed suicide just the same.

Why did he kill himself? Why do other teen-agers seek death? Boys like Henry who have been studied seem like model kids on the surface. Often they are outstanding scholars. They've learned to conform and did what was expected of them. Often they're sensitive, talented and admired by everyone. Unless you know them well you're unaware of their misery. But basically they have poor opinions of themselves. They think they are different and inferior. They set impossible goals, and condemn themselves bitterly for not reaching them. Often their parents expect too much of them, too. Being extremely conscientious they lack internal defenses. They can't find excuses, the way more normal kids do. So in spite of their success they really are frustrated failures.

Most of the boys like Henry are unpopular with the opposite sex and suffer accordingly. They may be deeply in love, but their loved one scorns them. Or maybe their love is returned, but their parents block them. One way or other they can't have the give-and-take dating fun other teen-agers enjoy. They brood themselves sick. Death suddenly seems attractive to them. Then, blooey!

No one can predict which teen-agers will kill themselves. But we parents can tell which of our young people are bitterly unhappy. Do you have a badly frustrated teen-ager? Then have a qualified psychologist or psychiatrist study him. Arrange for him to receive the treatment he needs. Your teen-ager may not be threatened by suicide. But he'll benefit from expert help, just the same.

AAUW Branch Names Grant For Own Member

Money for the second $500 fellowship in the 14-year history of the Mill Valley Branch of the American Assn. of University Women has been sent to national headquarters, according to Mrs. Frank L. Smith, branch fellowships chairman.

The first grant was for an international fellowship named in honor of Mrs. Ernest A. Evans of Mill Valley. She is still a lively and active late-octogenarian member of the branch.

Funds for the current national fellowship were obtained from several events sponsored by the branch since 1957.

A memorial fund honoring the late Dr. Ramona Wallace, former branch member and retired Marin County teacher, added to the amount. The branch has also expressed appreciation to the general public for assistance, Mrs. Smith said.

The Mill Valley Branch's money will be used at the discretion of the association's educational foundation through the program's unendowed funds to provide study for an American woman.

Mrs. Smith also announced that 46 fellowships totaling $160,000 will be available for the academic year 1964-65.

Business Should Solve Own Problems Without New Laws

California's big department store chains are mounting an all-out campaign for passage of a Sunday closing law before the present session of the State Legislature adjourns.

Whether you agree with their position or not (we do NOT), their campaign is brilliantly conceived.

Their primary concern, as stated in their rather persuasive publicity distributed so far, is for the welfare and comfort of their employees.

"Our bodies and minds require one day of rest out of every seven for physical and mental well-being," the chain store people declare.

But they don't mention that the day of rest could just as well be a day other than Sunday, and they don't mention that most Sunday workers still work only five days a week, taking two other days off.

The truth of the matter is that these big chain stores are gunning for their competition, the discount houses which have almost universally from their beginnings been open Sundays.

Our natural sympathies tend to be toward the established, responsible, reliable retailers instead of the cut-rate, discount houses where one sometimes finds out that his "discount" price is more than he might have paid at an old line retail establishment.

But our sympathies are NOT with the established chain stores on this mandatory Sunday closing effort, which they smartly refer to as "against commercializing Sunday."

This strikes us as another instance of a group of businessmen who want the legislature to solve a competitive problem for them.

"We have too many laws interfering with business. All this regulation of business is contrary to our American system of free enterprise," businessmen can be heard to say almost unanimously. And we mostly agree with their contentions.

But when the competitive shoe pinches, they nevertheless run to government asking for more regulation. And we disagree with this most heartily.

"Californians Against Commercializing Sunday"—that's the name of the chain store group fighting for a Sunday closing law—say there is no "blue law" aspect to their effort.

But their denying it doesn't change the facts.

If your religion requires observance of a Sabbath other than Sunday, a Sunday job provides a great economic opportunity to offset the loss of pay on your Sabbath. But if you are prevented by law from working on Sunday, the effect is economic discrimination because of religious beliefs.

Let us say again, we think the big chain stores ought to solve their competitive problems for themselves without inflicting a Sunday "blue law" on all of us.

Jeweled Splendor Follows Rain

When the sun breaks through the clouds following a good Marin spring rain, the trees and shrubs and early spring flowers sparkle and shine as though sprinkled with a million precious jewels.

While this lavish natural endowment of liquid gems is less rare than, say, a shower of diamonds, the rainbow prisms of a many faceted raindrop can be as exciting as those of a large emerald for a fleeting moment.

Added to the visual splendor of Nature's jeweled post-rain necklace, is the sun inspired music of bird song. Birds never pour their hearts out more melodically than after a hearty spring downpour.

There Was No Joy For Joy When She Tried To Find Lunch Partner

By JOY STILLEY
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—The next time I plan to meet someone I don't know by sight for lunch, I intend to make sure we'll recognize each other.

My hat will be trimmed in neon lights and I'll sport a rose between my teeth. And I'll request that the party of the second part make her entrance on roller skates and carry a cowbell.

Then maybe I won't repeat the tragedy of errors that marked my last luncheon date in a midtown restaurant.

It all started when my husband met—in line of duty, he claimed—a charming feminine member of a public relations staff and suggested that she call me and arrange a meeting.

In due time she telephoned me and we agreed to get together. "How will I know you?" I inquired.

"I'll make reservations and whoever gets there first can just sit down at the table and wait for the other," she replied.

That was fine. It was only after she hung up that I realized the reservations would be in her name and all I could remember was that her first name was Pat. I didn't panic because I knew my husband could supply the last name—after all, he had met her, hadn't he?

It turned out I knew more of her name than he did, but he finally succumbed to my pleas and phoned her office, where someone on the switchboard reported her name was Pat Hanson. All, at last, was well.

On the appointed day I presented myself at the restaurant and requested to be seated at Miss Hanson's table. I was guided to a booth where a lone lady awaited me.

After greeting each other effusively we settled back to chat, and had fully covered the health of the children and the state of the weather when she happened to ask if I had come in from New Jersey by bus.

I had a sudden suspicion. "You're not Pat Hanson?" I ventured. She wasn't.

BACK I went to the headwaiter, who was all apologies for the mistake. This time he put me in solitary confinement, where I sat trying to appear nonchalant while thinking up charitable excuses for my luncheon partner's lateness.

"Are you sure you don't want Mrs. Richardson?" he asked. "She's waiting too for someone who hasn't showed up."

STILL insisting that only Miss Hanson would do, I accompanied him to meet my fellow isolationist. It turned out she was Pat, after all.

It seems Hanson is her maiden name, which she uses at the office, but she made the reservations under her married name, which she had given me on the phone.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Indifferent To Pain, Suffering

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Referring to a recent letter in your paper by a Mrs. Larson regarding experiments on animals in Redwood High School, I recall an address given by Prof. James E. Mehorter, of the University of Vermont, Schools of Education and Medicine, at a convention in New York City which I had the privilege of attending.

He stated "that surgical procedures are especially thrilling to many pupils." That the teacher in one school stated that the pupils in his classroom are prohibited from giving names to the animals, be they mice, dogs or cats, lest these immature boys and girls lose this impersonal objectivity.

He further stated: "I am profoundly concerned with the psychological effects that this sort of public school experimentation has on the developing child. I am persuaded that if these experimentations continue to grow, and indications are that they will, it will contribute significantly to the mounting incidence of mental illness in our young people."

He further stated: "I hypothesize that the child who is conditioned, by either parent or teacher, to indifference and apathy towards the pain and suffering of any sentient creature—taught to repress his emotions, particularly love, affection and compassion—tends to develop a psychopathic behavioral pattern. It is imperative that we endeavor to put a stop to the callous and educationally pointless use of animals in the school. Under no conditions can we afford to have our children conditioned to indifference towards any form of pain and suffering."

Graduate students at the University of Vermont School of Education, are working with Prof. Mehorter, preparing a bibliography on the subject and collecting information that will be presented later to organizations of educators throughout the country.

Educators, teachers, parents and PTA's, I ask you what will become of humanity unless we cultivate tenderness and compassion for all creatures?

Reader Recalls Ferry Collision

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It was with great pleasure I read the article of the two ferry boats colliding, as my father, mother and uncle as well as myself were on the San Rafael, but we left San Francisco at 6:15 p.m., the business men's boat, and as the little San Rafael had to back out of the pier and get well away from the pier to be able to "right about face" in that way she lost her bearing and took the west side of Alcatraz and was struck by the Sausalito.

I was 12 years old and it all is very vivid in my mind, and after being safely aboard the Sausalito, we drifted for nearly two hours before a tug heard the distress "toots" and wanted to know if the Captain wished a tow back to San Francisco. He said no, just give me my location and I'll find my way. Well we were going through the Golden Gate and headed to the ocean, so he turned about and we landed in San Francisco around 9 p.m.

There were many tragic stories as well as humorous ones. We stayed in San Francisco that night and in the morning went home to Waldo Point. Our old home is still there on the point between Waldo Grade and the shore highway. We had 138 stairs up to our house.

That is the first I have read about the collision and though wrong, it was very interesting as I am old now and it is a highlight of my childhood.

Enjoy your paper and so glad you printed the article and pictures.

"I hope folks don't think of the church as protection—insurance never prevented a fire. In fact, it's been the reason for some starting."

10 YEARS AGO

Triplet girls were born to Mrs. Robert L. Modglin of Larkspur in Marin General Hospital—the first such Marin happening in more than 23 years.

Marin faced loss of all highway funds if its supervisors did not hold a public hearing and appoint a new road commissioner according to law, warned Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich. He said that in naming Marvin W. Brigham without hearings, the board erred, and had better start all over.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Danger Of Russ In Cuba Is Far From Over; President Must Act

WASHINGTON—No Presidential press conference could banish Cuba from the front pages of the newspapers or from the forefrfont of the mind of the country.

The reason is that, while the valuable McNamara and McCone briefings decisively removed one question, they left another—a very grave and disturbing one — unanswered and unresolved.

The Administration provided the nation with good assurance that Khrushchev's offensive missiles and bombers have been removed. They demonstrated that if, conceivably but improbably, some have been hidden, they cannot be re-erected without observation and that our air surveillance is capable of detecting any attempted return of such offensive weapons.

This, it seems to me, cleanly cleared away one of the two most anxious questions. President Kennedy has shown that he is not going to tolerate Soviet offensive missiles and bombers in Cuba, and the country has every reason to know that, if the danger arises again, he will act resolutely.

THE QUESTION which Mr. Kennedy, Mr. McNamara, and Mr. McCone left unanswered is this: is the United States going to leave unchallenged and in the end accept as an unalterable condition the Kremlin action of turning Cuba into a heavily armed and manned Soviet military base?

At least 1,500 coastal defense missiles.

12 Komar missile-firing PT boats.

Here is substantial Soviet military power planted 90 miles from the U. S. in violation of the Monroe Doctrine as embedded in the treaty of the Organization of American States. This is not, as the President stated, a serious or immediate military threat to the United States. But have we any reason to believe that Khrushchev will leave Soviet force in Cuba at its present level—if he can get away with building it up?

SECRETARY OF STATE Rusk has avowed the Administration's "grave concern" over the "significant Soviet military presence" in Cuba.

Undoubtedly President Kennedy does not relish this "presence" and is desirous of dissolving it. But he somewhat handicapped himself by the position he took last September when it first became known that Soviet weapons were going into Cuba. At that time he himself made the distinction between "offensive" and "defensive" weapons and indicated that the presence of "offensive" Soviet arms would bring. U. S. action.

The question now arises whether there can be any reasonable expectation that Khrushchev will carry out the statement he made at the height of the Cuban confrontation, namely, that Soviet troops would be removed "in due time."

The President is seeking to determine whether Moscow made this commitment in a moment of crisis which it now believes has passed—or intends to live up to it. We should know before long.

This is no time for irresponsible, political-minded hectoring. But the Administration should realize the questions which have been raised come from both parties, not just from Republicans. Democratic Sens. Jackson, Symington, Stennis, Morse, and others have voiced mounting anxiety.

The initiative is properly with the President. Most people are convinced, I think, that the danger from a Soviet-armed Cuba is far from over and that something more will have to be done.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

Marin County Among Finest Places To Be Visited By Loved Ones

UNCLE RAY GOULD has decided that if he's going to visit Mill Valley it had better be pretty soon.

If we'd been up in frigid Minnesota with him through this winter the decision to get going would have been quicker, and acted on sooner.

But Unk Ray has been putting up with the Minnesota climate for the past 80 or 90 years, whereas I cravenly quit and went west at the age of five. So since he's waited this long he will now wait a little longer and catch Marin County at around mid-April, a mighty salubrious season.

Some years ago he was in California as guest of his brother, my late father. But I judge Unk Ray hardly counts that as a visit because Dad was a fellow of high speed and positive ideas.

They went through Salt Lake City so fast it was just a blur, according to Uncle Ray, because Dad had just remembered that he could barely make his wedding anniversary if he drove a little more briskly.

Mother and Dad celebrated their anniversary together, all right, but Unk Ray crawled out of the car with just enough strength to say "What time is the next train back to Minneapolis?"

THIS TIME WE'LL take things a little slower. That is the only part of the program about which firm decisions have been made.

Another thing I know, from experience in visits to Minneapolis, is that I'll have to mix the martinis in two different strengths. Unk Ray favors about two to one, and I'm still not sure that he doesn't mean two parts vermouth.

Maybe it will be simpler not to mix at all. Unk Ray can have the vermouth bottle and I'll keep the gin. Everybody will be happy.

The entertainment program is still flexible, aside from the Cocktail Hour, so anybody with sound suggestions may come forward and be heard. Let's not be too strenuous, though—wife Agnes is still getting over that busted shoulder.

It is our intention to keep Unk Ray in good repair and things like touch football are out.

At the same time I'm going to see that he gets into the open air now and then, if only to let me somehow get square for a few of the japes he pulled on me when I was young and innocent.

UNK RAY WAS pretty good as a juggler and at slight-of-hand, in his day. That could be a handy thing in a rural community such as Excelsior, by Lake Minnetonka where we both got our starts in life.

Once Unk Ray caught sight of an egg rolling off a shelf. He fielded it neatly with one hand to the amazement of all beholders.

But the incident I remember best was staged for the edification of one of Unk Ray's young lady friends, with myself as stooge. Unk Ray called me out and showed me a big mud turtle perched high in a lilac bush.

I won't say he actually misrepresented but somehow I got the idea the turtle had climbed up all by himself. It took me several years to wake up.

Chances are I shan't think of any fitting rejoinder to that one. But I believe Unk Ray, with all his motoring experience, still has a little mileage to roll up in cars of the sports order. We'll attend to that.

TRUST US to gad around to all Marin's standard sights and a few more, to say nothing of Mendocino County and a quick look at that village south of the Gate.

But I'm hoping hammock weather will have come. For all the Goulds are famous talkers, and there is no better place to talk than out under Agnes's spreading California live oaks.

We write a couple of letters a week apiece but never seem to catch up. Besides, Unk Ray wants to see all the bluejays, junkos, squirrels, raccoons, deer and other livestock, naturally. We might even knock off the talk for them.

Marin County is about the finest place on earth to live. But it is also about the finest place on earth to bring the people you love.

BENNETT CERF

Back in the rugged—and romantic—days of railroading in our country, a circus train was flagged down on a siding of the Santa Fe. Three elephants managed to get their trunks, unnoticed, into the tender tank, and used up all the water giving themselves a shower. The train was stalled—until an ingenious mahout named O'Reilly uncoupled the engine and made the elephants tow it three miles down the track to a water tower.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Here Is When To Begin Work On Your Best Side Suit First

When there are holes in both your trump suit and your best side suit begin work on the side suit before you draw trumps. Your two long suits will then help each other.

When this hand was played, South won the ace of diamonds and drew two rounds of trumps with the king and ace of hearts. Since both of the long suits broke badly, this hasty work on the trumps proved South's undoing.

CONTINUED

Declarer continued with the ace and king of clubs. West ruffed the king of clubs, drew dummy's last trump, and forced South to ruff a diamond.

South still had to lose two club tricks so was sure to go down one, but he ran out of trumps and thus went down two.

It was not a distinguished performance, and South didn't take a bow as he scored 100 points for the opponents.

WAR STORY

"I once knew a man, during the war," North remarked dryly, "who could go down three on a hand like that. But I wouldn't want to find fault with the way you played it."

This meant that North was a good partner. We all like a partner who doesn't find fault.

North wouldn't have found anything to say at all if South had played the clubs before drawing trumps.

WEST RUFFS

Suppose South leads out the ace and king of clubs at the second and third tricks. West ruffs the king of clubs and returns a diamond, forcing South to ruff. South gives up a club to the jack and ruffs the diamond return.

Only now can South afford to draw two rounds of trumps. He then leads a low club to ruff in dummy.

South returns to his hand with the king of spades and leads the last club.

West gets two trump tricks and East gets a club, but South easily wins the rest to fulfill the game contract.

Today is Wednesday, Feb. 20, the 51st day of 1963 with 314 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1792, President George Washington signed the first U. S. Postal Act, thereby establishing the federal post-office.

In 1809, the U. S. Supreme Court ruled the power of the federal government was greater than that of any individual state of the union.

A thought for the day—George Washington said: "There can be no greater error than to expect or calculate upon real favors from nation to nation."

Many Bills Are Aimed At Increasing Social Welfare Aid

(Second in a Series)
By JERRY RANKIN

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Proposals to trim California's huge outlay for social welfare are far outnumbered by bills before the current legislature aimed at broadening the program's scope.

One significant bill was prompted by recent pre-dawn raids on homes of those receiving Aid to Needy Children payments.

The visits, carried out mainly in the Bay Area and designed to discover if women had men living with them who could support the children, stirred considerable controversy.

Assemblyman Robert W. Crown (D-Alameda) has introduced Assembly Bill 366 prohibiting checking on welfare recipients between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless the visitors carry search warrants or intend to make an arrest.

A related bill (AB190-Kennick) forbids reduction or elimination of state public assistance money solely because a recipient lives with another person, unless the non-recipient has enough income to permit a sharing of the housing cost.

Another major measure (AB23-Burton) would permit children under 18 of unemployed parents to receive Aid to Needy Children funds, instead of limiting such aid to children abandoned by fathers or whose fathers have died or are disabled.

The maximum amount payable to needy children would be reduced when that maximum exceeds the top amount of unemployment insurance available to the eligible person (AB835-Frew).

Interest from savings and "inconsequential" revenue would not be considered when determining eligibility for any welfare aid under AB59-Burton.

No relative or child would be held liable for support of elderly persons under the old age assistance plan (AB348-Burton). Old age assistance recipients would receive a supplemental grant making up the difference between their basic allowance and what they actually pay for housing and utilities (SB72-Geddes).

The maximum monthly grant for the elderly couldn't be reduced below $106, the maximum for blind below $124 and the top for didsabled below an average of $100 a month under AB61-Burton. Increases would be tied to the cost of living for the needy children, aged and blind under the same bill.

The law forbidding the state to get money from the personal property of aged and blind aid recipients to satisfy the cost of county hospitalization would be extended to all federally supported aid programs AB636-Burton).

AB347-Burton says a person needs only to be a California resident to qualify for blind aid, and raises from $99 to $119 the amount below which state aid can't be reduced because of federal action.

Another Burton bill (AB266) would: Eliminate the requirement that a needy disabled person must require regular care to qualify; make a $100 monthly average for a year the only limit for disabled; change the requirements for such aid if he has been here one year, is disabled here or is eligible under an agreement with another state; presume that one eligible for Medical Assistance to the Aged also is eligible for disabled aid.

Nursing homes are the subject of several bills. One (AB346-Burton) would allow payments to nursing homes which care for elderly under the Medical Assistance to the Aged plan to be adjusted annually to account for increased expenses.

It also provides that relatives have no obligation to help members of their family.

Just about the only bills aimed at cutting down on the program are sponsored by Assemblyman Robert E. Badham (R-Costa Mesa). One bill (AB-1209) would increase the number of children required to contribute to the support of needy parents.

The same measure requires counties to keep money recovered in the needy children program instead of returning a share to the state and federal government.

AB1211 would require that a lien be placed on the property of old age aid recipients and permit that lien to be collected at death or earlier, with permission of state officials.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

It's Best To Learn How To Keep Warm Traveling In Cold Area

VAN DELLEN

Bradford Washburn, director of the Museum of Science in Boston, has had considerable experience with frostbite, especially among mountain climbers. We doubt whether many of our readers expect to climb Mount McKinley or Minya Konka but we can profit from many of his suggestions.

He stresses the need for a healthy body as a fundamental defense against severe cold, especially among those who buck the elements at high altitudes, miles from help. The heat producing mechanism must function properly and the individual must do everything in his power to conserve this heat, once it has been produced. This is the same logic we use in keeping the home warm. It must have a good furnace, be insulated, and the doors or windows must be closed.

GOOD FOOD is important because cold weather increases our caloric needs. Food — like coal, oil, or gas—supplies the energy that produces heat. Adequate clothing, gloves, and footwear are the insulation.

Huge quantities of heat can be lost through the lungs, as when panting and overexerting in extreme cold. Exercise helps to keep warm but should not be done to the extent that the person becomes exhausted and short of breath. Injury and exhaustion have an adverse effect on body movements and it is here that good health enters the picture.

SHIVERING is nature's way of moving muscles to generate heat. At high altitudes this protective mechanism is impaired and heat production during rest is reduced. The high altitude also affects breathing, and unless the climber takes it easy, he is likely to lose heat through the lungs and become cold and exhausted.

Other factors must be considered when trying to keep warm and to avoid frostbite. Cold air is not as dangerous as a combination of wind and cold. Mr. Washburn says the chilling effect of air at 20 degrees above zero combined with a 45 mile wind is identical to that of air at 40 degrees below, coupled with a two-mile breeze.

When walking through the snow it is well to realize that when the air is zero, it may be several degrees colder a foot beneath the surface.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answers questions on medical topics if a stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

ACHING MUSCLES

J. B. writes: I'm suffering from fibrositis. I know it's incurable but could you give me any information that will help me understand the condition?

REPLY

Fibrositis comes in many forms and frequently is curable. Ordinary stiff neck is an example. Fibrositis is a vague disorder and is related to lumbago and other muscular aches and pains. It usually responds to heat, massage, and exercise.

RHEUMATIC HEART

U. E. writes: How is a rheumatic heart diagnosed?

REPLY

Most victims have a history of rheumatic fever; murmur, indicating leakage of a valve; an abnormality in the size and shape of the heart; and changes in the electrocardiogram compatible with this type of heart disease.

BUFFALO HUMP

G. J. writes: What causes dowager's hump—the lump at the back of the neck? I am only five pounds overweight.

REPLY

Poor posture, fatigue, and overweight usually play a role.

West Marin Tax For School 'Stable'

Trustees of West Marin Union Elementary School District Monday night were told there will probably be no increase in district taxes next year.

Supt. George Stratton, who presented a tentative 1964 fiscal budget of $131,000, said it could be supported by the present general fund tax rate of $1.60 per $100 assessed valuation. In addition, he estimated that $5,000 could be put aside in reserves during the year.

The current budget is $120,187. Total tax, including the general fund, 12 cents for overrides and 22 cents for bond interest and redemption, now stands at $1.94.

The board took no action on the tentative budget. Trustee Gus Kovats was the only member absent. The board adjourned after a 28-minute session until 8 p.m. March 11.

Held To Answer In Attack Case

Two men, suspected of harboring three runaway girls in a Fairfax home for almost a week, were held to answer yesterday on charges of statutory rape.

The three girls from San Mateo, aged 15 and 16, testified at a preliminary hearing against Grady Lester Harper Jr., 30, a San Mateo carpenter, and Robert Thomas Edmundson, 21, of South San Francisco.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Joshua Thomas called the three girls to the stand before Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court. All three said they stayed with the men at a home in Fairfax from Feb. 4 through Feb. 8. Two of the girls said they had been intimate with the men.

School Concert Made $1,200

There will be about $1,200 to spend on musical instruments for the Sausalito School District derived from last week's symphony concert held at Redwood High School.

The sum, plus the donation of six instruments, means the sponsoring Edgewater Foundation may be able to provide a total of 18 instruments to the district, according to Robert W. Hayes, foundation treasurer.

Hayes reported five violins have been donated and a sixth instrument is pledged by the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce. Anyone interested in giving a musical instrument to the school district is invited to do so, said Hayes.

Among successful plants introduced in the United States through the efforts of the late David Fairchild are Persian melon, Guatemalan avocado, Egyptian cotton, Peruvian alfalfa, the Chinese soy bean and Japanese zoysia lawn grass.

Blood Center Open Thursday, Not Friday

The Marin Blood Center, 506 Fourth Street, San Rafael, will not be open on Washington's Birthday, Friday, but will be open tomorrow instead.

Donors may give blood at the usual hours, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Mrs. Claudia Bessing, center supervisor said. Normally the center is in business every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Loma Verde Home Openings Slated

Grand opening of its first Loma Verde homes adjacent to the Marin Golf and Country Club, Ignacio, has been announced for Saturday and Sunday by Seabreeze Construction Co., which relocated its headquarters from San Diego to San Rafael last year.

The initial presentation covers 61 homes in the $22,900 to $29,750 price range now under construction in a program of more than 2,000 single family and multiple residences on 600 acres scheduled over the next three years. Three completely finished models furnished by Casa Marin will be open for public display.

Houses are of three and four bedrooms and include such unusual features as front walk post lights, built-in kitchen clocks, electric can openers, fireplace log lighters, pull-down bathroom scales, tissue dispensers and built-in shoe racks.

To celebrate the opening, Seabreeze has engaged John Cline Circus to stage several performances Saturday and Sunday with animal and acrobatic acts and clowns. Television performer "Marshal J.," a resident of Novato, will also appear on the program. A collection of paintings will be displayed by the Novato Art Guild.

Weekend "open house" hours will be 9 a.m to 9 p.m. and thereafter daily including Sunday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Tam Club Elects

The Tamalpais High School Electronics Club has elected Mark Desmett, president; Chris Howie, vice president, and Barry Jordan, secretary-treasurer. The club plans to meet weekly and work on electrical parts and to hear lectures by De Vere Day, club adviser.

Driver, Mother Hurt In Crash

Aubrey Oscar Merritt, the driver, said the vehicle skidded on a slippery part of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, turning on its left side. He and Mrs. Mae Ince of Berkeley had been visiting Tomales Bay State Park.

Merritt was treated at Marin General Hospital for abrasions of the left shoulder. Mrs. Ince received treatment for bruises of her face and left arm.

New Tam Firehouse Discussed

Tamalpais Fire Protection District commissioners Monday night revealed their interest in building a new firehouse adjacent to the present Tamalpais Valley station or remodeling the present station.

Fire Chief Herbert Owen was asked to get estimates on bath, said chairman Raymond J. Massagli.

"With paid firemen," Massagli said, "we don't have facilities in the present firehouse for the men to 'live in' practically." The district has its Tamalpais Valley station at 309 Poplar Avenue and its Homestead Valley station, Station No. 2, at 264 Evergreen Avenue.

The board approved three polling places for the April 2 election at which voters will vote on filling the expiring seat of incumbent Morris Batz. Batz is in the race, and Ralph D. Smith is contending for the seat. Polling places will be at both fire stations and the Almonte Improvement Club, Almonte Boulevard and Wisteria Avenue. Hours of voting will be from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Navy Man Graduated

Navy Lt. (j.g.) John W. Otis of Larkspur recently was graduated from officers' gunnery school in San Diego. Otis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Otis of 25 Wiltshire Avenue.

On your Federal return, each exemption is a $600 deduction. That is, for each exemption you are allowed to make $600 tax free.

P. J. Wikel

Exemptions determine the amount of tax-free income you are allowed each year, and are devised to make the tax fair between single persons, married couples and large and small families.

You are entitled to one exemption for yourself. You are also entitled to one additional exemption if, on Dec. 31, 1962, you had attained 65 years of age, or if you were blind.

If you were both 65 and blind, you are entitled to two additional exemptions.

You are also entitled to exemptions on the same basis for your wife if you file a joint return.

If you file a separate return, you can claim your wife's exemptions only if she has no income and was not claimed on any other taxpayer's return for 1962.

If your wife or husband died in 1962, the additional exemptions for age and blindness are determined as at the date of death, rather than Dec. 31.

You are entitled to one exemption for each dependent.

Additional exemptions for old age and blindness apply only to you and your wife or husband, not to dependents.

Expert On Phonetics Will Speak

Mae Cardon, originator of a nationally known system for phonetic teaching of reading, will speak in Larkspur on March 1.

Miss Cardon's appearance will be in the Henry C. Hall School multi-purpose room at 8 p.m. Shet will describe her system and results which have been obtained with it.

The veteran teacher operates a school in Berkeley to instruct other teachers in her methods. Her approach to teaching of reading has received wide attention since the national trend began moving back to teaching of phonics within the last few years, after three decades of adherence to the "look-say" method by almost all American public schools.

Her talk, which will be open to the public, was arranged by Mrs. Camille Robinson of Larkspur. The Larkspur School District granted use of Hall School after it became evident the throng attending would be too large for a private home, Mrs. Robinson said.

Sausalito Drug Store Purchased

The Sausalito Pharmacy at 701 Bridgeway has been purchased by Frederick Mayer of San Rafael from Richard Less of San Rafael and Ronald Lager of Greenbrae.

Mayer, who lives with his wife, Jacqueline and three children at 587 Thornwood Terrace, was pharmacist-manager of the drug store in 1961-62 for Less and Lager. He worked for the past year for De Martini Owl Drug, San Anselmo. He is a graduate of the University of California and has done postgraduate work in cancer research at Stanford and in hormone research in Copenhagen.

The pharmacist said he will keep the same format and operation but will add the Rexall franchise. Hours will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Mislaid TB Test Forms Replaced By Request

Parents who may have lost or mislaid forms for requesting tuberculin skin tests for their children may obtain more, Dr. Mary Jo Tonelli, chairman of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. testing committee, said today.

The association will administer skin tests on Tuesday to all first and ninth-grade students in the San Rafael schools upon request of parents. She said this is a pilot program to stimulate regular testing for tuberculosis.

Letters with request forms included were sent to all parents of first and ninth-grade students last week. Most of the forms have been returned, but Dr. Tonelli said some parents who have misplaced the letters have inquired about securing more forms.

The skin test, which is simple and harmless, will determine whether or not a child has been exposed to tuberculosis. All children who have not been tested for one year should have the test, and any who have been tested may be re-tested, since the process is harmless.

Dr. Tonelli pointed out that the skin test eliminates the need for chest X-rays unless results are positive.

Test results will be read on March 1 and reports will be mailed to parents during the following week.

Pot Breaks Window

Someone threw a potted geranium plant through the dining room window of her home at 69 South Knoll Road, Alto, while she was away between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Monday, Mrs. Kenneth Edwin Hall told sheriff's deputies. It broke a hole a foot in diameter and scattered glass on the floor, she said.

Vandals Break Into School, Mess It Up

Vandals broke into a new school under construction next to St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon and left the building in a mess, sheriff's deputies reported yesterday.

Herb Adler of Richmond, foreman for Reardon Construction Co. of San Francisco, discovered the damage yesterday. He told officers that a window was smashed, paint spilled on the floor, stain poured into five gallons of paint, and a bag of lime broken.
